

All people do learn

- ! inherent in being alive
- ! not possible to have an intellectually neutral environment

If nothing else, students learn that

- ! the teacher has all knowledge
- ! they may never be able to acquire it
- ! college doesn't make sense
- ! they're no good (dumb)

Reinforced by

- ! professors who don't like to be interrupted
- ! teachers who view talking as cheating
- ! assessments that are incomprehensible
