

INTERNATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Each year, students from 80-100 different countries enroll at Andrews University. More than 20% of the students come from other countries. This places the university among the top level of small American universities with high percentages of international students. One experiences the reality of a global village while attending college.

Students who wish to immerse themselves fully in American culture may enroll in the English as a Second Language (ESL) program of Adventist Colleges Abroad (ACA) on the Andrews campus.

CAMPUS RESOURCES

Andrews University Bookstore

Campus Plaza 471-3287

The bookstore supplies all textbooks required for classes along with a wide selection of reading material in the general trade book section. School, office, art and drafting supplies are available as well as AU imprinted gifts and clothing. It also features a selection of greeting cards, stationery and gift items.

Andrews University Press

Information Services Building 471-6915

Andrews University Press publishes academic books that make a scholarly and/or professional contribution to their respective fields. Publication emphases include archaeology, biblical studies, religion, faith and learning, and education.

Career Planning and Placement Services

Campus Center, Room 120 471-3141

Career Planning and Placement Services provides a broad range of career advising from pre-freshman through graduate and alumni years. Students may receive individual assistance in evaluating career goals, choosing majors and minors, obtaining co-op or internship experience, identifying possible employers, and planning job-search strategies.

Center for College Faith

The Center for College Faith, which is open to all members of the Andrews University faculty, seeks to help faculty better understand and foster the faith development of college undergraduates. The stated mission of the Center is twofold. Specifically it acquires and disseminates knowledge about how college students develop in their Christian beliefs, values, and lifelong commitment to God, especially in relation to direct academic experience; and promotes the growth of a distinctly Christian undergraduate "culture of learning" informed by careful scholarship on the Andrews University campus.

Center for Distance Learning & Instructional Technology

James White Library, Room 304 471-3960

The Center for Distance Learning & Instructional Technology (D.L.I.T.), offers assistance to students who want to take correspondence, on-line, video-based, and audio-based courses and/or work towards a distance degree. The D.L.I.T. also has a lab for faculty and staff to assist with their technology needs. More info: www.andrews.edu/dlit.

Center for Intensive English Programs

Nethery Hall 471-2260

The Center for Intensive English Programs offers classes in writing, grammar, reading, and oral/aural communication for students whose first language is not English and who do not meet English proficiency requirements for regular admittance to university classes. The CIEP also coordinates a program for testing English-language proficiency using the MELAB (Michigan English Language Assessment Battery).

The Center operates the Adventist Colleges Abroad (ACA): English program. This program in English as a Second Language gives international students an immersion experience in American culture as well as English. Language classes include all skill areas and preparation for TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language). Out-of-class activities, such as sports events, dining out, shopping, trips to major cities, and everyday conversational training are an important part of the program. English-speaking students accompany international students on activities and are paired with them as roommates.

Center for Statistical Services

Bell Hall (Education), Room 151 471-3478

The Center for Statistical Services provides help with all aspects of empirical research. Services include (1) research design, (2) development of questionnaires and measurement instruments, (3) data entry, (4) statistical analysis, and (5) interpretation and reporting of results.

Center for Youth Evangelism

Seminary Hall, Room S103 471-8380

The Center for Youth Evangelism (CYE), an organization of the Theological Seminary, provides creative youth ministry programming and resources throughout the North American Division (NAD). It offers a variety of services to seminarians, pastors, conferences, and churches.

The CYE provides youth ministry training through workshops, seminars, and major training events. It evaluates and produces youth ministry materials, and promotes study and research in youth ministry. Current evangelism programs include domestic mission trips, an Easter Passion Play, International NAD Camporees, an Internet Radio Station, Giraffe News (leadership newsletter), etc. More info: (800)YOUTH.2.U or www.AdventistYouth.org.

Center of Continuing Education for Ministry

Seminary Hall, Room N226 471-3514

The Center of Continuing Education for Ministry (CCEM) is a branch of the Theological Seminary. It serves the General Conference Ministerial Association, the North American Division, and other organizations of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. It provides continuing education for persons currently working in Adventist ministry. It also serves Adventist administrators, lay leaders, and, to a limited degree, ministers of other Christian organizations.

It tries to identify the needs and issues that affect the professional growth of Adventist ministers and develops continuing-education courses that provide certificates and continuing-education units. It serves church organizations as an accrediting, monitoring, and registering agency.

Christian Leadership Center 471-8332

The Christian Leadership Center is an interdisciplinary organization providing inspiration, ongoing leadership development, coaching, consultation, and research for a network of church and community leadership throughout the world. Our vision is a network of Christian leaders who provide outstanding leadership for church, business, and educational organizations throughout the local community and the world. The Center provides a place for academicians and field practitioners to link in a process of theological reflection that shapes the Seventh-day Adventist church's understanding of leadership and clarifies transformational leadership development across cultures. The biblically based model of servant leadership promoted by the Christian Leadership Center grows from that reflection. The center focuses on transformation of the person, development of essential leadership patterns, and formation of administrative skills.

The Christian Leadership Center's mission is to accompany and develop people in their journey as servant leaders for the church and as Christian marketplace ambassadors throughout our changing world.

Global Research Center Seminary Hall 471-6309

The Global Research Center (GRC) compiles the only comprehensive electronic database of the Adventist church and global mission statistics in cooperation with the General Conference Office of Archives and Statistics. Its purpose is to support mission research and strategy development through accurate information, expert analysis, and informal training events for leaders in the field.

Greek Manuscript Research Center Seminary Hall, Room N124 471-3219

The Theological Seminary Department of New Testament sponsors the Greek Manuscript Research Center (GMRC). Its primary goal is to help develop a more complete understanding and appreciation of Christianity's primary documents—the original, handwritten Greek manuscripts of the New Testament copied over a 1200-year period. The Theological Seminary is a participant in the International Greek New Testament Project, an ongoing venture of American and European scholars seeking to create an exhaustive multi-volume reference tool that documents every variant in all known, surviving Greek manuscripts of the New Testament. The GMRC holds one of the largest collections of microfilmed Greek manuscripts in North America.

Horn Archaeological Museum 9047 Old US 31 (exhibits closed until 2006) 471-3273

An archaeological museum named for its founder and first curator, Siegfried H. Horn (1908-1993), houses over 8,500 ancient Near-Eastern artifacts including coins, pottery, sculptures, tools, weapons, figurines, jewelry, seals, and glass vessels. Nearly half of these objects came from university-sponsored archaeological excavations at Tel Gezer, Israel, and at Tall Hisban, Tall el-Umair, and Tall Jalul, Jordan.

The museum building contains offices, work rooms, the Siegfried Horn Archaeological Library, and the collection display area. Eleven oil-painted murals help visitors understand the cultures of Bible times. A special Writing Exhibit contains the Andrews University Cuneiform Texts (formerly the Hartford Cuneiform Tablet Collection). This collection has 3,000 ancient clay tablets dating from the Sumerian period to Neo-Babylonian times.

The museum sponsors a regular lecture series, occasional field trips, and a quarterly subscription newsletter.

Howard Performing Arts Center Box Office 471-3560 Fax 471-3565

The Howard Performing Arts Center officially opened in October 2003 and serves as a premiere performance hall—which seats up to 850—for the region. The walls and ceiling have been "tuned" by Kirkegaard Associates of Chicago (who have also tuned Carnegie Hall) to reflect sound evenly, resulting in accurate acoustics which require no amplification system. In addition to showcasing music performers from the university, surrounding community, and beyond, the Howard Performing Arts Center will ultimately be the home for Andrews University's classical music radio station WAUS, 90.7 FM.

The center was funded in part by a significant gift from John and Dede Howard, longtime members of the St. Joseph community, who now reside in Holland, Mich.

Information Technology Services Information Services Building 471-6016

Information Technology Services (ITS) provides many services available to faculty, staff, students and the university administration. Web servers contain a wide variety of official university information as well as personal web space for faculty, staff and students. An email storage area is available to all faculty, staff and students, and email forwarding services are available when a student, faculty or staff member are no longer associated with the university. Dial-up modem access to university resources and the Internet is available to faculty, staff and students residing off campus. Two network connections are available in every residence hall room. A wireless network is available in most academic buildings allowing students to use a laptop computer and a wireless network card to connect to the campus network and Internet without "plugging" in.

ITS makes hardware and software available to students, faculty and staff at educational prices. It also assists with software questions as resources allow.

Telecommunication services provided by ITS in apartment and residence hall packages are caller ID, call waiting and regular channel TV. Services provided with additional fees are long distance telephone services, voice mail and Premium Cable TV. (For more information call 471-6600).

ITS provides two general purpose computer labs available for any student, faculty or staff member to use. These are located in Bell Hall, Room 182, and Nethery Hall, Room 208. These labs contain Windows-based computers with a variety of software. Laser printing is available for a fee. Additional computer labs exist in various schools or departments.

Institute for Prevention of Addictions Adjacent to the Sutherland House 471-3558

The mission of the Institute for Prevention of Addictions (IPA) is to engage in research, education, and policy development to more effectively understand, prevent, and treat addictive behaviors. The IPA is affiliated with the Department of Health Ministries of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists and works with other organizations whose goals are in harmony with its mission and activities. Researchers affiliated with the IPA are active in publishing and presenting the results of their work in a wide variety of scientific, professional and faith community venues. The research and educational activities of the IPA are funded by a wide variety of public and private agencies.

Institute of Archaeology9047 Old US 31 (exhibits closed until 2006) 471-3273

The Andrews University Institute of Archaeology coordinates the archaeological programs and activities of the university. It fosters archaeological research, publication, and education at Andrews University, the communities of Michiana, and all entities of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

The institute (1) offers courses through the seminary which directly or significantly relate to the study of archaeology, (2) sponsors regular visits by distinguished archaeologists for the purpose of lecturing and consulting, (3) organizes public tours, (4) presents archaeological programs for churches and schools, (5) provides opportunity for field and laboratory training through its excavations and surveys in the Middle East and Michiana and the subsequent analysis of these activities, (6) supports the work of the Horn Archaeological Museum in collecting and interpreting artifacts, and (7) publishes results of excavations and research in annuals, monographs, and occasional papers.

Institute of Church MinistrySeminary Hall 471-3407

The Institute of Church Ministry (ICM), an entity of the Theological Seminary, shares the expertise and resources of Andrews University with the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America, thus aiding denominational leaders in the accomplishment of its goals. The ICM serves as the North American Division Strategic Resource Center but also works for the General Conference, local conferences, local churches, and Adventist journals.

The work of ICM springs from the belief that the tools of social science can join with biblical and theological insights to advance the objectives of the church. Its mission is conducted through field-based research concerning Adventist youth, lay-member involvement, training for ministry, church growth, church-giving patterns, Adventist women in leadership, Adventist Hispanics, and the attitudes of Adventist members on various issues.

Institute of Diversity and Multiculturalism 471-3543

The Institute of Diversity and Multiculturalism (IDM) was established to create and foster inclusiveness in matters of race, ethnicity, culture, mental and physical abilities, age and gender. It does so by providing assistance and training through lectures, workshops and seminars to faculty, staff, businesses, church organizations, law enforcement agencies, human resource professionals and educational entities.

Institute of Hispanic MinistrySeminary Hall, Room N206 471-6170

The Institute of Hispanic Ministry (IHM) of the Theological Seminary responds to the growing needs of Hispanic congregations in North America and beyond.

The tasks of the IHM include providing graduate-level study for Hispanic pastors both on and off campus and assisting in various ways a continuing education for Hispanic ministers. It coordinates the Hispanic MA in Pastoral Ministry and supports Hispanic courses in the MDiv and DMin programs. The IHM also provides support systems for Hispanic ministry and churches that are in transition culturally and linguistically. It encourages research and the dissemination of its findings for the Seventh-day Adventist Church at large.

Institute of Jewish-Christian StudiesSeminary Hall, Room N107 471-3349

Jews and Seventh-day Adventists share much of the same spiritual heritage and the same ideals of hope and lifestyle. Moreover, since the events of Auschwitz during World War II, Jewish-Christian issues have become a relevant part of theological concern. Therefore, the Institute of Jewish-Christian Studies organizes meetings with world renowned experts, provides a wide range of educational material, and supplements the graduate programs of the Seminary with concentrations in Jewish-Christian studies. These include courses in Jewish History, rabbinics, and languages. In all its work, the Institute seeks to train lay persons and ministers to foster constructive relations with Jews in their communities and to develop a global consciousness in all outreach and service.

Institute of World Mission471-2522Seminary Hall

The Institute of World Mission (IWM) is the training branch of the General Conference mission program with three main functions.

1) The Institute provides mission education and intercultural training for missionaries, administrators, and others engaged in cross-cultural ministry. 2) The Institute maintains an on-going flow of care to missionaries and their families through orientation classes, re-entry seminars, newsletters, missionary camp meeting, and resource development. 3) The Institute acts as a strategic resource for the world church assisting in comprehensive planning for mission, in developing mission capacity, and in revitalizing missionary vision.

The Institute staff take their training events, seminars, and workshops to numerous countries each year and also teach courses at the Seminary. IWM and the Seminary Department of World Mission work closely together and often share teaching responsibilities.

International Center on Religionand Government 471-3292

In cooperation with the General Conference Department of Public Affairs and Religious Liberty and in close association with the history department of Andrews University, this Center undertakes various functions to augment understanding of religious liberty as a concept and to foster and safeguard that freedom in practice throughout the world.

JAMES WHITE LIBRARY471-3275

The James White Library holds book, print, and electronic collections totaling more than 1.2 million volumes and provides study and research facilities. Its strongest collections are in religion, education, architecture, and Seventh-day Adventist publications and resources. Periodical resources in print and electronic formats total over 10,000 titles. The library's computerized catalog, JeWeL, can be accessed through the campus electronic network as well as globally through Internet. Many major electronic databases are available through Internet. Through the Michigan Library Consortium, the library has access to the Online Computer Library Center for cataloging, inter-library-loan information, and other services based on data from over 50 million entries.

The Center for Adventist Research is located in the main library. An Architecture Resource Center and a Music Materials Center are located in their respective buildings on campus.

Center for Adventist ResearchLower Level*471-3209

The Center for Adventist Research contains historical materials and resources on Seventh-day Adventist history and Ellen G. White, a key founder of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination. Comprising the Adventist Heritage Center, the Ellen G. White Estate Branch Office, and AU Archives, the Center holds the largest collection of research materials on Seventh-day Adventism in the world. The Center was formed in the fall of 2003 by integrating the three entities to better serve the campus community as well as the world community of Seventh-day Adventists by providing research support services as well as a significant outreach component.

Adventist Heritage Center

Located within the Center for Adventist Research, the Adventist Heritage Center contains material on the history and development of the Millerite Movement and the Seventh-day Adventist Church since the 1840s. Among the materials preserved at the Center are over 50,000 books and pamphlets, 20,000 periodical volumes, 12,500 microforms, 4,300 sound recordings, and 1,300 video tapes. A sizeable number of the periodicals are non-English motion and picture films and represent the finest collection of its kind in the world including many one-of-a-kind titles. The Center holds over 200 collections (800 linear feet) of personal papers of notable church figures such as pioneers, administrators, teachers, ministers, and missionaries. These collections provide a wide range of primary source documents. The center's archives contains 30,000 photographs of denominational and campus interest, an obituary file of nearly 200,000 names, and the records of early Adventist congregations. The SDA Periodical Index is located at the Center.

Special collections of the Heritage Center include the Advent Source and the Conditional Immortality Source Collections which document the origins of Seventh-day Adventists, the development of prophetic interpretation, and the history of the doctrine of conditional immortality. The George B. Suhrie Bible Collection features an extensive collection of Bibles. Rare materials include books dating as early as the 15th century, and several original editions of Martin Luther and other Reformer's pamphlets. The Voice of Prophecy and Faith for Today historical archives also are located at the center.

The Adventist Heritage Center also serves as the home for the Andrews University Archives and Records Center. The holdings number hundreds of cubic feet of historical and significant records of the University dating back to 1874 to the present.

Ellen G. White Estate Branch Office

Located within the Center for Adventist Research, the Ellen G. White Estate Branch Office contains a complete set of the letters and manuscripts of Ellen G. White (1827-1915). It also has copies of her books and published articles, and thousands of pages of other documents related to the history and development of the Adventist Church.

The Branch office houses numerous resources for students interested in research. The most important of these are (1) the Letter and Manuscript File of 60,000 pages with topical index; (2) the Ellen G. White published writings on compact disc (CD-ROM), making possible computer searches of Mrs. White's writings; (3) a Biographical Index covering the span of Ellen White's life and documenting her travels and activities; (4) 1,600 Manuscript Releases (with indexes); (5) an extensive Document File covering many aspects of the writings of Ellen White and of the history of the Seventh-day Adventist Church; (6) a Question- and-Answer File with index; (7) a Microfiche File of out-of-print, Seventh-day Adventist literature.

University Archives

The Andrews University Archives and Records Center is an independent university-wide entity under the leadership of the Office of the Vice President for Academic Administration. It functions as one of the entities of the Center for Adventist Research. The Archives, formally established in 1999, is the official repository for non-current University administrative records of historical, fiscal, legal, or administrative value. Records held in the Archives date from the historical beginning of the University from Battle Creek College to the present. The over 300 cubic feet of records maintained at the Archives include the correspondence of the presidents, vice presidents, and deans; minutes of the Board of Trustees, administrative and faculty committees; and other records of the central administrative offices, student services, the various schools, departments, institutes and other entities of the University.

The Archives has established an archival program which includes policies, a manual, retention schedules, guidelines and forms for identifying those records/items which can be destroyed and those which must be kept and properly transferred to the Archives. It also includes the writing and creating of a database program for processing and retrieval of records. The goal of the Archives is to standardize procedures for proper record management across campus.

Mary Jane Mitchell Multimedia CenterTop Level*471-3272

The Multimedia Center houses audiovisual media and multimedia materials, and the equipment and facilities for using them. It has a multimedia mini-lab for student use and a high-tech lab where teachers receive training and assistance in producing software that can be used in teaching.

Seminary LibraryMain Level*471-3269

The Seminary Library is an integral part of the James White Library. It provides collections and services needed by seminarians and faculty. Seminary Library resources include approximately 150,000 books (including a separate reference collection), 500 periodical subscriptions, and 15,000 bound periodicals.

Biblical studies and theology are the major strengths of its holdings. Materials are available dealing with the biblical books of Daniel and Revelation and especially the subject areas of the Sabbath and the second advent. Collections on mission, pastoral ministry, church history, ancient history, archaeology, anthropology, sociology, and philosophy are also featured.

Marine Biological Field StationAnacortes, Washington*360-293-2326*Biology Department*471-3243

Andrews University is affiliated with Walla Walla College (College Place, WA) in the operation of a marine biological field station located at Rosario Beach in Washington State's Puget Sound. The station provides facilities for undergraduate and graduate study and research. The site is near a biological spectrum from sea bottom to Alpine tundra that provides unique opportunities for instruction and investigation.

Mathematics Tutoring CenterHaughey Hall (Science Complex), Room 112*471-6662

The Mathematics Tutoring Center helps students enrolled in mathematics classes achieve success. The service is free and hours of operation are posted.

Museum of Natural History
Price Hall (Science Complex)

Lower Level 471-3243

The Museum of Natural History is a display used by students and visited by hundreds of people annually. The most complete skeleton of a woolly mammoth ever found in Michigan is displayed in the museum.

Donors have contributed collections of over 30,000 marine shells, 1,600 birds, and 1,400 mammals as well as hundreds of butterflies and other insects. The museum also includes over 5,000 botanical specimens in the herbarium section. A collection of antique microscopes is also displayed.

North American Division Evangelism Institute
Seminary Hall, Room S303 471-8303

The North American Division Evangelism Institute (NADEI), first established in 1979 in the Chicago area and relocated to Berrien Springs in 1993, provides field-related evangelistic training to seminarians. It emphasizes public evangelism, Bible studies, small groups, felt-need seminars, laity training, and church growth. In addition, NADEI issues the Lay Minister Certificate to qualified lay people who complete its program of instruction. NADEI is operated by the North American Division as a separate entity, but it works with the seminary in administering and developing its program.

Radio Station WAUS 90.7 FM
Campus Center, Lower Level 471-3400

WAUS began broadcasting in January 1971 and now broadcasts 24 hours a day to listeners in southwestern Michigan and northern Indiana. The day-by-day programming, production, and student-broadcast training take place in a facility featuring a broadcast studio, a production studio, a music library, and staff offices. Station programming includes classical music, news updates, and religious programs. WAUS contributes to the local community by being the only 24-hour provider of classical music and arts information, providing student training and employment, and public relations exposure for Andrews University.

School of Evangelism, Mission, and Ministry (SEMM)
Seminary Hall 471-3536

The School of Evangelism, Mission, and Ministry strengthens the practical outreach training programs of the Theological Seminary. It coordinates the entities of the seminary that are involved in these endeavors. SEMM is made up of all departments of the seminary, the North American Division Evangelism Institute (NADEI), the Institute of World Mission, the Center for Global Urban Mission, the Global Church-Growth Research Center, the Institute of Church Ministry, the Institute of Hispanic Ministry, the Center of Continuing Education for Ministry, and the Center for Youth Evangelism. The work of SEMM sponsors SEEDS (church planting) conferences, GO mission conferences, special degree-program emphases, and leadership training programs.

Student Success Center
Nethery Hall, Room 204 471-6096

The Student Success Center (SSC) collaborates to identify student's needs: to facilitate their physical, emotional, social, intellectual and spiritual development through support and leadership; and to provide resources for faculty, staff and parents who share their concerns for student success.

The Student Success Center exists for the sole purpose of helping students succeed in college. This center supplements the educational process by providing academic guidance, support, and developmental instruction. Academic Advising and the Academic Skills Program are also part of SSC.

The Student Success Center serves as a resource for all students—from freshman to doctoral candidates—in all schools of the university. SSC networks with all other campus support centers and functions as a referral base. The SSC also manages the Academic Skills Program, a campus-wide tutoring service; facilitates accommodations for students with disabilities; provides guidance for undecided students; and oversees Academic Advising.

ADA Services for Students with Disabilities

Andrews University accepts and appreciates diversity in its students, including students with disabilities.

Accordingly, students with documented disabilities are encouraged to inform the University of their Disability and enter into a dialogue regarding ways in which the university might reasonably accommodate them. Students should note that an academic institution can respond only to what it knows.

The Student Success Center strives to provide reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities. Students are responsible to provide necessary documentation of disabilities from a qualified, licensed professional before accommodation can be considered.

University Assessment Office
Marsh Hall, Room 311 471-3373

The University Assessment Office helps faculty and administrators evaluate whether the university is accomplishing its mission. The office collects information from student academic progress, senior exit tests, surveys, and departments, then analyzes the data and reports the findings to individuals and groups within the university. The findings are used to improve teaching and learning at all levels of instruction. Reports are also made to the Board of Trustees and others outside the university who help ensure that the university lives up to its claims.

The University School
Garland Avenue
Ruth Murdoch Elementary School 471-3225
Andrews Academy 471-3138

The University School is a coeducational day school located on the Andrews University campus. It consists of two divisions—Ruth Murdoch Elementary School (preschool–grade 8) and Andrews Academy (grades 9–12). In addition to providing education for young people enrolled in the school, the University School serves as a demonstration school and a laboratory for educational innovation and research. The faculty and administration work with the School of Education in coordinating a teacher-training program.

Application for admission to either division of the University School should be made at least four weeks before the student plans to enter. The first semester begins approximately the last week of August. Information on admission may be obtained from the Admissions Office, Ruth Murdoch Elementary School, 8923 Garland Avenue, Berrien Springs, MI 49102-0570; or from the Admissions Office, Andrews Academy, 8833 Garland Avenue, Berrien Springs, MI 49104-0560

University Center for Reading, Learning, and Assessment
Bell Hall, Room 013 471-3480

The University Center for Reading, Learning, and Assessment addresses learning and reading-skill needs through college classes and tutoring. It helps students to strengthen their God-given abilities and natural gifts. Academic assessment and tutoring services of the center are available to Andrews students, faculty, staff, and community for a fee. Students with learning problems are nurtured towards the goal of successful course work.

Reading skills developed in the center include speed reading, study reading, vocabulary, word recognition or decoding skills, spelling, and handwriting. Students, faculty, and staff may use equipment and materials for personal reading improvement on a self-help basis for a fee. Average to excellent readers as well as those having difficulty with reading are served.

The center offers a college class that covers memory, learning styles, time management, temperament, mind style, and emotional condition. A follow-up class includes coordination with advisors, teachers, and staff to help the student and provide individualized and small-group support.

Writing Center

Nethery Hall 471-3358

The Writing Center provides students with individualized instruction by fellow students on basic writing skills and strategies. Services of the center include computer-assisted tutorial sessions, drop-in help, and a library of rhetoric and usage texts. The Writing Center also offers occasional review sessions on general writing problems.

OFF-CAMPUS PROGRAMS

Charles H. Tidwell, Jr.
 Director of Affiliation and Extension Programs
 Administration Building, Room 211
 (269) 471-6216
affiliations@andrews.edu

With authorization from the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools and other controlling organizations, the various schools of the university have entered into official academic affiliation/extension arrangements with certain educational institutions in North America and abroad. The programs consist of a variety of arrangements ranging from academic monitoring of existing institutional programs to using institutions as extension campuses or examination centers for graduate and undergraduate education, with degrees being conferred upon students at the next official Andrews University graduation at the main campus and after completion and verification by the Records Office of all degree requirements. The affiliation/extension programs vary from courses offered in a variety of disciplines to full degree programs.

The Affiliation and Extension Programs Committee authorizes and reviews all university policies related to affiliation and extension programs. The administrative and academic committees charged with academic quality control and relevant policy development also govern the extension programs. Financial policies as described in this bulletin are applicable to extension programs in North America. All credits earned in Andrews extension programs are valid on the Andrews campus or any accredited extension campus. Once accepted into an Andrews program, students may transfer between home and extension campuses.

Affiliation/Extension Programs

Undergraduate

Undergraduate affiliation programs are offered at Helderberg College, South Africa; Caribbean Union College, Trinidad; and Newbold College, England. Andrews University confers approved associate and baccalaureate degrees on those students who have fulfilled admission, academic, and program requirements at these centers.

Graduate

Graduate affiliation and extension programs are offered in a number of disciplines by the various schools of the University.

The College of Arts and Sciences offers courses leading to the MMus (Music Education) degree at Montemorelos University, Mexico, and the MS (Human Nutrition) degree at several sites in the United States.

The School of Business offers the MBA degree in Trinidad.

The School of Education offers the MA degree at Newbold College, England, and Spicer Memorial College, India. It also offers a graduate certificate in educational psychology at Caribbean Union College, Trinidad.

The Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary offers the MA (Religion) at Babcock University, Nigeria; Romanian Adventist Theological Institute, Romania; Spicer Memorial College, India; and Zaoski Adventist Seminary, Russia. It offers the MA in Pastoral Ministry at Babcock University, Nigeria.

The Seminary also offers the Doctor of Ministry degree for the Trans-European Division at Newbold College, England.

In North America, the Seminary offers the MA in Pastoral Ministry degree and courses toward the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees at several locations.

In addition, the School of Graduate Studies offers the MSA degree (International Development) at five sites: Bolivia, Columbia, Italy, Kenya, and the Ukraine.

Other International Educational Opportunities

Andrews University co-sponsors Adventist Colleges Abroad—a program in which qualified students study overseas while completing requirements for graduation at Andrews. This language and cultural immersion is available in nine locations: Argentina, Austria, Brazil, France, Greece, Italy, Singapore, Spain, and Taiwan. Participation is not limited to language majors. Contact the chair of the Department of International Language Studies for further information.

Undergraduate students may study abroad in the Andrews University Year in England at Newbold College program. The purpose of this program is to allow students to participate in a culturally enriching academic experience. Information about this program can be secured by writing Newbold College or contacting the Director of Affiliation and Extension Programs at Andrews University. Students should make application directly to the Admissions Office, Newbold College, Binfield, Bracknell, Berkshire, England RG42 4AN.
