

CHEM474 (2)
Advanced Topics in Organic Chemistry
 Study of the principles of modern synthetic organic chemistry with applications from one or more of the following areas: natural product, medicinal, or polymer chemistry. Weekly: 2 lectures. Prerequisite: CHEM232. Fall

CHEM475 ♦ (2)
Advanced Topics in Physical Chemistry
 Advanced study of molecular spectroscopy, statistical thermodynamics, chemical dynamics, or the application of quantum mechanics. Prerequisites: CHEM432 or CHEM431 and permission of the instructor.

CHEM495 ♦ (1-4)
Independent Research
 An opportunity for chemistry and biochemistry majors to gain research experience by joining with a faculty member in study of an area of special interest.

Graduate

CHEM530 (2-4)
Topics in Teaching Chemistry
 Each time the course is offered, it treats one of the following areas:

- Concepts in Chemistry
Fundamental ideas of chemistry
- Demonstrations
Simple experiments which illustrate chemical principles
- Problem-Solving Strategies
Exploration into the mental processes and logic behind problem-solving.

None of the above areas are to occur twice in one student's program. Prerequisite: CHEM232. Repeatable to 6 credits.

CHEM540 (2-4)
Topics in Chemistry
 Independent readings to be chosen in consultation with the instructor. A written report and an oral presentation covering the materials read are required. A minimum of 60 hours of work is required for each credit. Prerequisite: CHEM431. Repeatable to 6 credits.

Mission

The Department of Communication creates and fosters a diverse, Christian learning community dedicated to producing professionals of distinction committed to global service.

“Communicating for community” reflects the vision of the programs offered by the Department of Communication.

Communication is all about connection—successfully sharing messages and meaning. Communication competence is critical to being an effective leader. Lee Iacocca, chairman and CEO of Chrysler Corporation, said, “the most important thing I learned in school was how to communicate...you can have brilliant ideas, but if you can't get them across, your brains won't get you anywhere.”

The Department of Communication offers a variety of undergraduate programs as well as a master's program.

Lambda Pi Eta

Lambda Pi Eta is the National Communication Association (NCA) affiliated honor society.

Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA) Chapter

The Andrews University PRSSA chapter is affiliated with the Western Michigan Public Relations Society of America. At the national level students are eligible for PRSA's publications, scholarships, award programs, leadership training and a national conference.

Computer Policy

The Department of Communication regards the computer as a tool integral to the success of students in their professional development. It is required that all students purchase a laptop computer and software to meet the department guidelines. Because computer technology is continually changing, a revised policy is drafted in the fall semester. A list of software is available in the department. Specific requirements change so it is important to make sure the software listed is compatible with the laptop you choose to purchase. Use of the computer in the curriculum varies by course.

Undergraduate Programs

After completing the freshman/sophomore sequence of courses, students should make application to the faculty to continue their chosen majors. Students may be asked to take specific communication courses to develop required skills. Transfer students beyond the sophomore year are allowed one year to make up deficiencies.

Internships

Journalism and PR majors must submit applications for required internships during the sophomore and/or junior year. Students must fulfill the required number of clock hours to meet the requirements for their degree.

Communication majors are encouraged to participate in the internship program and must then submit applications for internships during the junior or senior year. Students must have department permission prior to applying for internships. It is strongly recommended that students complete COMM480 prior to submitting applications.

Practicum

Practicum refers to the out-of-class opportunities on campus and in the immediate area for developing skills valuable to the communication professional. Students are encouraged to apply to the department for such opportunities. These experiences will be documented in a Portfolio as evidence of the student's involvement in the practical application of theory.

Communication Core—11

Required for each of the five majors and interdisciplinary emphases offered: COMM215, 230, 480, JOUR230.

BA: Communication (38)

Major requirements: Communication core plus JOUR140; COMM280 or 465; COMM320, 405, 432, 436, 456, 475; and 3 credits of electives chosen in consultation with the advisor. A minor or a second major is required for this major.

Available only to those students obtaining secondary teacher certification. For teaching certification requirements, see Teaching, Learning & Curriculum section under School of Education.

Graduate ProgramMA: Communication

Master of Arts: Communication is designed for students who wish to develop advanced-level communication skills in combination with knowledge or skills in another area or areas.

Students may select either the interdisciplinary program or one of the emphasis areas. The procedures are explained in the department's Graduate Student Manual. The Graduate Student Manual is available online at: www.andrews.edu/comm/ under Graduate Students.

General Admission Requirements

Graduate Program admission requirements, academic information and graduation procedures are detailed on pp. 44–54. The Master of Arts: Communication Student Manual details the procedures required by the Department of Communication (available online and from the Department).

Departmental Admission Requirements

This is a summary of the procedures that a student planning to enroll in the MA should note:

- 1) At the time of application for admission, students must:
 - a) have a bachelor's degree or its equivalent.
 - b) present a portfolio of current evidence of communication experience/background.
 - c) submit a Statement of Purpose which explains how the relevant disciplines will be integrated to meet his/her career and academic goals.
- 2) Upon acceptance and registration, the student in conjunction with the graduate advisor will develop a Plan of Study which is based on the student's Statement of Purpose.
- 3) In addition to the admission requirements of the School of Graduate Studies & Research, the student applying to the Department of Communication must:
 - a) have a minimum of 12 semester credits in communication and/or related areas.
 - b) have an overall GPA of 2.75
 - c) complete all deficiencies at the beginning of the program. These courses are in addition to the regular graduate-degree course work.
 - d) evidence a sufficient command of the English language to succeed in the proposed program. This requires a minimum TOEFL score of 600 average with no section score lower than 60 and a minimum 5.5 score on the TWE (Test of Written English) or a minimum MELAB average score of 90 with no section lower than 88. No test score may be older than one year.
 - e) evidence a sufficient command of the English language to succeed in the proposed program. This requires a minimum paper-based TOEFL score of 600 with no section score lower than 60 and a minimum 5.5 score on the TWE (Test of Written English), 93 on the Internet-based TOEFL, or a minimum MELAB average score of 90 with no section lower than 88. No test score may be older than one year with the exception of the ibt which is good for two years.

Progression

All graduate students need to understand that

- The GRE must be completed in order to register for the second semester courses.
- A student on regular status must, in consultation with the graduate advisor, identify members to serve on a supervisory committee. This committee is appointed before students register for their second semester in the program. It determines individual requirements for completion with reference to a student's Plan of Study.
- A 3.00 GPA per semester must be maintained.
- Application for Graduation must be completed before completing the Advancement to Candidacy.
- Upon completion of 50% of course work, Advancement to Candidacy is initiated by the student, who completes all the required forms.

Forms are submitted to the chair of the Department Graduate Program Subcommittee. On approval, recommendations are made to the Records Office and to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

See pp. 50–52 for further details on graduation procedures and degree conferral.

MA Degree Requirements

- 1) Comply with the standards outlined in the Graduate Degree Academic Information section of the bulletin.
- 2) Select either the interdisciplinary program or one of the emphases and complete a curriculum consisting of a minimum of 40 credits of course work approved by the supervising committee.
- 3) Pass COMM670 Comprehensive Examination over the areas selected for the degree.
- 4) Submit and successfully defend a portfolio.

Graduate Certificate Program

The Graduate Certificate Program in Communication is a focused group of Andrews University courses in the field of communication. After completing the program, a student will have general communication skills for work in business, communication industries and the Church setting, both nationally and internationally. These skills include planning and preparing promotional materials, web content, speeches, presentations and visual media products.

A portfolio of current evidence related to experience within related areas of communication must be submitted before completion of the Graduate Certificate Program. A student who successfully completes the 12 credits will have met the requirements of the Graduate Certificate Program which is noted on the student's transcript.

Courses taken in the Graduate Certificate Program may be applied by petition to a master's program in Communication.

Admission and Time Limit

Graduate admission processes and standards of the Graduate School apply. The Graduate Record Exam (GRE) is not required. The time limit for completion of the certificate program should not exceed five years from the first enrollment.

Prerequisite

Bachelor's degree

Delivery System

Courses may be delivered as summer courses, as intensives on a three-year rotation basis and pre-campus and post-campus work may be required. The courses may be offered on a regular on-campus basis during the semester.
