Don't Forget—Information and Resources Available to You

University Forum—Tuesday, March 27, 10:30 am, PMC. Immaculee Ilibagiza, author of Left to Tell, will be the guest speaker.

Howard Performing Arts Center Events

Christian Artist Series: Anthony Evans—Saturday, March 31, 8 pm. Evans recently released his sophomore project album, Letting Go, which accurately describes Evans' spiritual life. "This record is about trusting God absolutely, and understanding the magnitude of the hope we have through the sacrifice Christ made," Evans explains. Advance tickets $10 students, $15 adults. Tickets at the door are $17.

Easter Celebration—Friday & Saturday, April 6 & 7, 8 pm.

Howard Series: Southwest Michigan Symphony Orchestra—Sunday, April 15, 4 pm. The Southwest Michigan Symphony Orchestra will make their debut performance at the Howard Center, presenting Mozart, Mozart, and More Mozart. Joining the SMSO is the Lake Michigan Youth Orchestra, under the direction of Steve Reed, as well as violinist Carla Trynchuk, professor of music, in a performance of Violin Concerto #5. $30 Adult, $15 AU Students, $20 AU Faculty/Staff.

Call the Howard Center Box Office at 888.467.6442 or 269.471.3560 for tickets or further information.

Easter Passion Play 2007—Saturday & Sunday, April 7 & 8. Reserve your free tickets and sign up to volunteer online at <http://passionplay.andrews.edu> or by calling 269-471-8360 (online reservations filled first).

Gymnics Home Show—Saturday, April 14, 9 pm, Johnson Gym.

Michigan Notable Books Program—James White Library presents author Anna-Lisa Cox on Thursday, April 19, at 7 pm in the Garber Auditorium of Chan Shun Hall. Cox is the author of A Stronger Kinship, which tells the story of 19th-century Covert, Mich., where "blacks and whites lived peacefully and equally with shared political power, integrated schools and interracial marriage." Each year, the Library of Michigan celebrates 20 of the previous year's best books either written by a Michigan resident or about Michigan or the Great Lakes. A variety of programs and events are planned each year to honor and commemorate the authors.
