The screenshot shows the ISI Web of Knowledge search results page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Sign In, My EndNote Web, My ResearcherID, My Journal List, My Saved Searches, Log Out, and Help. The main header features the ISI Web of Knowledge logo and the tagline "Take the next step". Below the header, there are tabs for "Current Contents Connect" and "Additional Resources". The "Current Contents Connect" tab is active, showing a search bar and a "Marked List (1)" link with a checkmark. A yellow callout "5" points to this link. The main content area displays the search results for the topic "(psychology and 'social networking')". It shows 2 results on page 1 of 1, sorted by "Latest Date". A yellow callout "2" points to the pagination controls. On the left side, there is a "Refine Results" sidebar with a search box and a "Search" button. A yellow callout "4" points to this search box. The sidebar also lists "Subject Areas" (Behavioral Sciences (2), Psychology (2)) and "Document Types" (Article (2)). A yellow callout "3" points to the first result, which is titled "Self-presentation and gender on MySpace". A yellow callout "1" points to the title of this first result. The first result is by Manago, AM, Graham, MB, Greenfield, PM, et al. and is published in the Journal of Applied Developmental Psychology. The second result is titled "Social networking technology: Place and identity in mediated communities" by Goodings, L, Locke, A, Brown, SD, published in the Journal of Community & Applied Social Psychology.
