About the Presenters

Van G. Hurst, B. Mus. Ed., M.B.A., president of the Indiana Conference, is a 1976 graduate of what is now Southwestern Adventist University in Keene, Texas. He also attended the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University and is currently enrolled in a Masters in Ministry. He has served in Iowa, Oklahoma, Texas, the Dakotas, and the Mid-America Union, as a teacher, pastor, various departmental directorships and conference president.

Denis Kaiser, M.A., is a Ph.D. student in the area of Adventist Studies at Andrews University. He contributed in the development of the White Estate Digital Research Center and serves the church through the translation of books. He is especially interested in the development of Adventist theology, and today's topic constitutes a part of his M.A. thesis.

George R. Knight, M.A., M.Div., Ed.D., professor emeritus, taught at Andrews University for 30 years, retiring in 2006 as Professor of Church History. He has written more than 30 books, including several on Ellen White and Adventist history. He currently lives in Rogue River, Oregon.

Isaac Olatunji Jr., Ph.D., teaches in the Religion and Theology department at Oakwood University and is currently serving as a pastor in the South Central Conference of SDA. He has been teaching at Oakwood University since 2006 specializing in Adventist Theology and the Gift of Prophecy. He is the author of the book, You Can Fly Beyond The Sky, and was a presenter at the 2008 Adventist Theological Society Spirit of Prophecy Symposium on "The Prophetic Stream."

Tim Poirier, M.T.S., is Vice Director and Archivist of the Ellen G. White Estate at the World Headquarters of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, where he has been employed since 1981. Among his major projects have been the Ellen White CD-ROMs and the forthcoming annotated volume of Ellen White's earliest letters and manuscripts.

All presentations are in the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary Chapel located at Andrews University.
