Cost of the Study Tour

MDiv student tour fee (above tuition)	$390.00
Seminary MA student tour fee (tuition covers it all)	$0.00
Seminary PhD student tour fee (tuition covers it all)	$0.00
Spouse reduced fee (five available)	$775.00
Spouse regular full cost tour fee	$950.00

The student will be responsible for all course requirements and will receive a letter grade. All expenses for the tour are included except for five meals while traveling to and from New England. The above contact information will be used to contact you for all future information relating to the tour. Each person joining the tour must complete an application form and submit the $100 deposit. The deposit is due at the time of application. Acceptance to attend the tour will be in the order of application. Priority will be given to students over spouses. Students must also financially clear through Student Financial Services. Fee may be refunded through April 15, 2014 but will be non-refundable after that date unless there is an approved standby student. Tour fee is due in full by June 1, 2014. MA and PhD students must pay $100 refundable deposit to hold their seat. Spouses are welcome to join Seminary students on this tour. There are five seats reserved for spouses at a reduced rate. After those five seats are filled, the rate for spouses is increased to the full cost of the tour. Applications will be received at the Center for Adventist Research on the ground floor of the James White Library.

- I have read the above guidelines and apply to attend the Tour.
