Patricia Habada Collection: The Development of SDA Women Clergy (Collection 253)

Scope and Content

Patricia Habada, Ph.D., began her church service in the Pennsylvania Conference of Seventh-day Adventist where she served as a teacher, principal, and associate superintendent of schools. For over 25 years she served at the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventist using her expertise in curriculum and education in the Education Department, Sabbath School & Personal Ministries Department, and the Department of Church Ministries. She has worked as editor and writer assisting in the production of textbooks, manuals, Sabbath School lessons and other church and educational resources. Dr. Habada has also devoted much time and energy to encouraging and supporting women in ministry and in other non-traditional roles in the Adventist Church. She was a leader in the formation and work of the Association of Adventist Women (AAW) and Team for Equality in Adventist Ministry (TEAM).¹

This collection contains materials gathered by Patricia Habada on the role of women in the church and the ordination of women into the Gospel ministry primarily during the decades of the 1970s to the 1990s. Dr. Habada assembled a wide range of resources from Seventh-day Adventists and other denominations as well as from secular sources. The collection is made up of various documents including articles, correspondence, e-mails, papers, programs, reports, studies, Adventist On-line chat room transcriptions, General Conference and North American Division materials and minutes, church bulletins, periodicals, books, and audio/visuals (audio cassette recordings, video cassette recordings and DVDs). Most of the contents of the collection are Seventh-day Adventist and reflect Dr. Habada's supportive position on women in ministry. The bulk of the material is from the 1980's and the 1990's, although there is material from early Adventist history, the 1970's and the 2000's.

Arrangement

The general arrangement of the collection has been done by personnel from the Andrews University Center for Adventist Research. The collection's documents are arranged alphabetically by topics. The arrangement retains some of the original donor's plan, but much was changed to make access easier for most researchers. Many of the folders under the North American Division preserve Dr. Habada's original arrangement. Also some of the larger folders such as Andrews University, Sligo Seventh-day Adventist Church, Southeastern California Conference, and Seventh-day Adventist On-line, reflect Habada's arrangement. There was little attempt to arrange materials within the folders. The audio/visual section includes sermons, books on tape, presentations, seminars, women's ordination, women in ministry affirmation services, and General Conference meetings, worships, sessions and news releases.

Originally there were over 200 books in the collection. Most of the books in the collection dealt with women's issues in the church or are authored or edited by women. Other books in the collection covered a variety of subjects, e.g. spiritual formation, public speaking/preaching, and education. The books have been removed from the collection and dispersed throughout the Center for Adventist Research, the James White Library, or the Center for Women Clergy. There is a bibliography of the books as part of this register.

Provenance

Patricia Habada donated the collection to the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary's Center for Women Clergy (CWC) in October of 2005. Through arrangements with the CWC the Center for Adventist Research now holds and manages the collection for research purposes.

Use

All users of this collection will complete the "Application to Use Unpublished Records," and observe the regulation specified in the "Patron's Agreement" and "Researcher's Code of Conduct." All records in this collection are open and available for research. Suggested citation for this collection:
