A. L. Hudson Papers Collection 193

Biographical Information

A. L. Hudson is a layman living in Baker City, Oregon. A printer by trade and a theologian by interest, he became enmeshed in many of the theological controversies within the Seventh-day Adventist Church from the 1950's to the 1980's. He was one of the principle printers for many of the independent movements during those times including Andreasen and Brinsmead. Due to his theological positions, he ran afoul of the church structure from the local church to the General Conference. He was disfellowshipped in 1961, but remained engaged and continued to attend church.

Scope

The papers consists of correspondence, manuscripts, notes, and various manuscripts written not only by A. L. Hudson but also by authors, such as Brinsmead, Andreasen, and others.

Arrangement

The correspondence files are arranged chronologically. This will help the researcher understand the context from which the letter came better than in an alphabetical arrangement by writer. The topical files are arranged alphabetically. See the following inventory.

Provenance

The A. L. Hudson Papers were donated to the Andrews University Adventist Heritage Center in 1998, by Mr. Hudson.

Use

All users of this collection will be required to complete the "Application to Use Unpublished Records," and to observe the regulations specified in the "Patron Agreement" and "Researcher's Code of Conduct." All records in this collection are open and available for research, except that photocopies may not be made until after April, 2008. Citation for this collection:
