Kilgore Family Papers

Collection 239

Scope and Content:

Charles L. Kilgore (1869-1941) was the son of Robert Mead Kilgore (1839-1912), a pioneer in the Adventist work in Texas who later served in top administrative positions in the Illinois, Georgia, and Southern Union Conferences. After graduating from Battle Creek College in 1891, Charles L. Kilgore worked for a time for the American Sentinel, the publication of the Religious Liberty Association. He went on to serve in several administrative capacities in Texas, Oklahoma, and later in Tennessee, including acting as business manager and commercial teacher at the Southern Training School. In 1910 he moved to South Lancaster, MA, where for 22 years he served as secretary-treasurer and auditor of the Atlantic Union Conference.

The Kilgore Family Papers consist of two principle parts: the family's personal correspondence, and the business correspondence of Charles L. Kilgore.

The personal correspondence is primarily that of Letha Ethel (Hall) Kilgore (1872-1928), the wife of Charles L. Kilgore, though it includes some of her husband's and other family members' correspondence.

The business correspondence is divided into three categories. The first is a letter-book of correspondence from R.M and C.L. Kilgore who were serving as President and Secretary/Auditor of the Southern Union Conference, respectively. The correspondence is to various denominational workers, and deals primarily with accounting issues.

The second category is correspondence concerning the Southern Training School from 1897-1909. Both R.M. and C.L. Kilgore were board members of the school. This part of the collection is not restricted to Kilgore correspondence, but includes copies of correspondence among board members, school officials, union officials, and General Conference officials, as well as drafts of certain documents from the Board of Trustees concerning the school.

The third category consists of correspondence from the early 1930's when C.L. Kilgore was working for Ayers & Hammond Insurance-Real Estate, which provided insurance to several denominational entities. The correspondence deals primarily with billing, investment, policy, and claim issues.

Arrangement:

The personal correspondence is arranged chronologically. A detailed content listing, both chronological and by name of sender follows the register. A number of envelopes which were empty when received by the Center for Adventist Research have been included in a separate folder. The Southern Training School portion of the business correspondence is likewise arranged chronologically. The Ayers & Hammond portion follows C.L. Kilgore's original arrangement: alphabetical by name. As the Center for Adventist Research did not receive Kilgore's Ayers & Hammond files from A to G, the correspondence files begin with the letter H.

Provenance:

The collection was donated to the Center for Adventist Research in May, 2005 by Atlantic Union College.

Use:

All users of this collection are required to complete the "Application to Use Unpublished Records," and to observe the regulations specified in the "Patron Agreement" and "Researcher's Code of Conduct." All records in this collection are open and available for research. Citation for this collection:
