New cohort for Evangelism & Church Growth launches

The 2008 cohort for Evangelism and Church Growth met at the Forest Lake Church in Apopka, Florida, January 27-February 8. Dr. Joe Kidder is the concentration coordinator and served as the lead teacher for the first intensive. Participants come from thirteen different states, Canada, the Bahamas, China, and South Africa.

New Expository Preaching cohort to begin in July

Join an advanced program for the preaching professional facing the challenge of reaching the multi-generational, ethnically diverse, trans-cultural community of the 21st century. This program is designed to help pastors and evangelists master the art and science of biblical preaching for results, with an emphasis on a Christ-centered approach. This will be a rich opportunity for participatory learning with Dr. John Nixon and Evangelist Mark Finley during the July 20-August 1 intensives at the campus of Southern Adventist University in Collegedale, Tennessee.

To submit an application, call 888-717-3544, or download an application package from the Doctor of Ministry website: www.doctorofministry.com. Application deadline is June 2.
