Application deadline: November 29, 2013

WHAT IS IT?

The Doctor of Ministry concentration in Discipleship and Biblical Spirituality will provide a theological framework and theoretical understanding of discipleship and biblical spirituality. It will integrate the leader's personal spiritual transformation with the skills involved in one-on-one spiritual mentoring. Strategies and resources will be developed to enable the pastor to cultivate a congregation that will value and nurture discipleship, spiritual growth and caring outreach to the wider community.

WHEN DOES IT BEGIN?

The teaching intensives for the first module will be February 23-March 13, 2014.

WHERE WILL THE INTENSIVES BE HELD?

The first year's intensives will be in Orlando, Florida. The second year's intensives will be held on the campus of Andrews University. See the schedule on the sidebar for further details.

HOW IS THE PROGRAM ORGANIZED?

Each of the year-long study modules includes a teaching intensive. During the program you will also participate in regional work groups, develop a context support group, establish a mentoring relationship, read and reflect on the best literature in the field, as well as develop and evaluate a professional project within the context of your own congregation or leadership responsibilities.

OUTCOMES – WHAT WILL THE PROGRAM ENABLE YOU TO DO?

Upon completing this program, the participants will be able to:

- Articulate a Seventh-day Adventist perspective on discipleship and biblical spirituality.
- Understand and integrate devotional habits into one's own life and ministry.
- Demonstrate continuing growth in spiritual leadership and ministry.
- Through spiritual mentoring, assist church members who are struggling for consistency and depth in their journey with God.

- Train spiritually mature and relationally gifted people as spiritual mentors.
- Cultivate a congregation that nurtures discipleship and spiritual growth.
- Shape the church into an 'authenticity community' involved in a life of evangelism through loving and maturing relationships.
- Embrace and carry out a biblically and theologically faithful praxis of discipleship and biblical spirituality both individually and corporately.
- Discern truth from counterfeit as a means of both personal and corporate faithfulness.
