

Junior Year—Affirmation

- Schedule an appointment with your academic advisor to finalize course selection and graduation requirements
- Schedule an appointment with your CTC counselor to examine your career related values and explore means by which you will become a successful professional
- Be aware of Student Success Services
- Refine your resume and interview skills. Check out AU Careers, CTC Career Counselor, or your academic department.
- Apply to graduate and professional schools. See your advisor
- Complete the Andrews University graduation application
- Take graduate admissions tests (GRE, LSAT, MCAT) See CTC
- Attend Resume writing, interview, and job search workshops. Check out AU Careers for a complete list of Career Events
- Visit AU Jobs and other on-line resources for job opportunities
- Attend job fairs. See academic department and AU Career Events.
- Network with professors, on-campus speakers, job fair employers, family, and friends to develop professional contacts
- Contact faculty and administrators to arrange for letters of reference
- Strengthen your professional skills, demeanor, and appearance
- Begin to build a professional wardrobe for interviews and your future profession
- Join and maintain active memberships in professional associations related to your chosen career
- Seek and obtain a Summer internship experience
- With the assistance of your CTC counselor explore your life goals, become more comfortable with yourself, and learn to attend to the nurturing of your spiritual, physical, mental, and emotional dimensions
- Refine your professional portfolio