

Senior Year—Transition

- Schedule an appointment with your academic advisor to finalize course selection and graduation requirements
- Schedule an appointment with your CTC counselor to examine your career related values and explore means by which you will become a successful professional
- Be aware of Student Success Services
- Refine your resume and interview skills
- Take tests and apply to graduate and professional schools
- Complete the Andrews University graduation application (Fall term)
- Attend resume, interview, and job search workshops
- Attend job fairs. Check out AU Career Events and or See academic department
- Network with professors, on-campus speakers, job fair employers, family, and friends to develop professional contacts
- Contact faculty and administrators to arrange for letters of reference
- Strengthen your professional skills, demeanor, and appearance
- Join and maintain active memberships in professional associations related to your chosen career
- Continue to enhance your professional wardrobe for interviewing and your future profession
- With the assistance of your CTC counselor continue to define your life goals, become more comfortable with yourself, and learn to attend to the nurturing of your spiritual, physical, mental, and emotional dimensions
- Strengthen networking skills
- Complete your professional portfolio