

News for January 2009

Classes in Desire2Learn (D2L)!

All of the Andrews University Courses are available in D2L. To find your courses go to <http://d2l.andrews.edu>. The Spring 2009 courses are listed under each department. Use this space can be used to upload the course syllabus, post any other documents for the students, gradebook, have the students electronically submit assignments, etc. If you email your syllabus to dlit@andrews.edu we can upload it for you. Also let us know if we can assist you in any other way.

Is your Gradebook FERPA COMPLIANT?

Are you tired of printing out the student's grades and handing them out in class? Are you concerned about student's privacy? What if they get the wrong gradesheet? Are you tired of students asking you what assignment is missing? The gradebook function in D2L is the answer to all of these questions. If you email a copy of your syllabus with the grading information to dlit@andrews.edu, the staff at the DLiIT will get your gradebook set up for you. Do not hesitate, contact us today.

January Learning Opportunities

The DLiIT Office does not have any scheduled trainings for January. However, if you contact the dlit@andrews.edu an appointment will be made with you for one-on-one assistance.

Textbooks Going Green

Cindy Swanson, Andrews University Textbook Manager, will be demonstrating how the electronic textbooks will work on the following dates. Spaces are limited so email dlit@andrews.edu to reserve your space today.

- January 20 at 10:30 a.m. in the Library Instruction lab
- January 21 at 1:00 p.m. in the Library Instruction lab

Still Looking - Faculty Focus Groups

The DLiT is creating faculty focus groups to discuss the needs for instructional technology across campus. The focus groups would meet at the minimum of 1-2 times. The actual number of meetings would be determined by each individual focus group. The groups would start meeting the second week of January. If you are interested in being involved, please email dlit@andrews.edu
