

News for September 2010

TurnItIn

NOW AVAILABLE: TurnItIn is now integrated in D2L. Have student submit their papers in the D2L dropbox and if you have checked enable plagiarism detection, the paper will automatically be checked for plagiarism. You do not need an additional username and password unless you would like a separate account to initiate the checking. For more information contact Marsha Beal at dlit@andrews.edu

Learning Management Software (LMS)

LAST CALL FOR FEEDBACK!! We are reviewing the usages and usability of Desire2Learn (D2L). Your feedback is crucial as we consider the needs for teachers and students here at Andrews University. At this time only 96 faculty have responded.

Here is a link to the survey:

<http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/D2Lopinion>

We are assessing Moodle, another learning management system. This does not mean we are leaving D2L, but means that we are looking at the options. Below is a schedule of demonstrations of Moodle. These demonstrations are overviews of the product with comparisons with D2L. In October we will be look more in depth at specific tools in Moodle. Please come and help decide the future of D2L.

Tuesday, September 21 & 28 11:30 a.m.

Thursday, September 23 & 30 11:30 a.m.

Here to Help You

- Desire2Learn
 - Assist in uploading course content
 - Help develop course structure
 - Put in quizzes
 - etc
- Course development
- eClickers
- TurnItIn

Feel free to contact us for individual appointments.

The Center for Distance Learning and Instructional Technology

Marsha Beal, Director

269-471-3960

dlit@andrews.edu

www.andrews.edu/dlit