Acknowledgments

While the final form of this book is my responsibility, there are many persons who have inspired and helped me. Only a few of these generous persons can be named here.

My book is dedicated, with thanksgiving, to my father and mother, Royden and Madeline Hanna, of Nassau, Bahamas. As my first pastor and teacher, they laid the foundation for my pastoral, teaching, and writing ministry. I also rejoice in the support of the members of my family ministry team: my wife, Henrietta, and my children, Pharez, Melody, and Zachary.

Administrators and colleagues at Northern Caribbean University (Mandeville, Jamaica) supported parts of my work which were published in the journal Issues in Theology and Spiritual Leadership. Dr. Vassel Kerr read an early draft and has written a generous foreword. Claudette Pitter and Kerry-Ann Chambers served with distinction as my administrative assistants. I also learned a lot from all my students in Jamaica.

At Andrews University (Berrien Springs, MI), colleagues, and students continue to facilitate my work. Dr. John Baldwin assisted in refining part of my research to be included in his book, Creation, Catastrophe and Calvary. Some of my research has also been published in the Journal of the Adventist Theological Society. Marilyn Bender and Marlene Rothermel have assisted in many ways. John Peckham helped by editing, formatting, illustrating, and discussing theological issues. Other dialog partners include Drs. Fernando Canale, Peter van Bemmellen, Walter Brown, Harold James, and Clinton Baldwin.

Thanks be to God for His guidance and for the many who have helped me directly and indirectly. I commit this book into His hands and pray that His Spirit will illuminate my mind and the minds of my readers as we continue to read God's books.
