STORIES OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES – SA CHILDREN’S PARTY

The Student Association Children’s Christmas Party took place one December 6, 2009. One of the things we want our students to learn during the Christmas season is the spirit of giving. The SA Children’s Christmas Party is designed for this purpose.

Andrews Academy students signed up a groups of 2 - 3 to sponsor a child for the Christmas party. Various children from the community are invited for this evening. The SA officers welcomed children as they arrived for the evening.

The evening began with group games in the the commons such as duck duck goose as well at “Santa Says”. After the games the pizza supper was served.

One of the activities the children did was to decorate their tables while waiting for the food. Santa and his helpers were there to hand out the gifts.

I was in “disbelief” when I heard Santa tell one person that he will not be getting a gift... he was “bad” and will only be getting a piece of “coal” this year... you’ll understand when you see the picture to the left. (Cole Hill)

Ray Ulrich played Santa. Each group of Academy students pooled their money to buy their child a Christmas gift. A lot of Christmas joy was experienced as Academy students gave to make Christmas a little more fun for our community children.

As seen by not only the smiles of the invited children the Andrews Academy students also had a lot of fun in sharing the Christmas joy. This evening is yet another example of genuine school spirit that the Andrews Academy family enjoys.
