Courses

See inside front cover for symbol code.

MSSN525 Mission to the World
A broad introduction to Christian world missions. Includes aspects of mission history, the theological foundations of mission, intercultural perspectives of mission service, and contemporary theological thought about missions. Required of all MDiv students.

MSSN530 Theology and Witness for Other Faiths
Fosters an understanding of and an approach to other faiths as found in North America. Includes Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, New Age, Bahai, etc. MSSN525 Mission to the World prerequisite. Required for all MDiv students.

MSSN535 Applied Missiology for Pastors
Uses the insights of missiology and the social sciences for the analysis of congregations and society. Forms the base for informed witness and cultural and ethnic understanding and cooperation. MSSN525 Mission to the World prerequisite. Required for all MDiv students.

MSSN584 Preparation for Mission Service
A general orientation for missionary candidates that aims to (1) create an awareness of the actual-missionary situation today; (2) prepare mission appointees to meet this situation; and (3) shape attitudes that are indispensable to a fruitful mission service.

MSSN610 Theology of Mission
The biblical foundation of mission—its essence, goals, motives, and the role of the church in mission.

MSSN615 Anthropology for Mission and Ministry
The fundamentals of culture, social structure, group organization, and social change studied as a basis for intercultural understanding and communication. Attention given to issues which constitute challenges and opportunities to cross-cultural workers.
MSSN618 (2-4)
International Urban Mission
Explores the nature of cities worldwide, noting their history, development, and relationship to the mission of God and the church. Students are exposed to various ministries.

MSSN627 (2-3)
Development Community, and Ministry
A study of biblical models, historical examples, and development paradigms illustrating ways that Christian mission has been involved in social change.

MSSN630 (2-3)
Cross-Cultural Leadership Development
A study of leadership emergence, selection, and training in missionary churches with particular attention paid to strategic issues of various training models and the relationship between formal, informal, and non-formal leadership development. Identical to CHMN630.

MSSN635 (2-3)
Contemporary Issues in Mission
Current issues in mission and the way they affect the church's outreach in the world. Repeatable.

MSSN650 (2-3)
Introduction to a World Religion
An introduction to the history, beliefs, writings, personalities and current developments in religions such as Islam, Judaism, Hinduism and Buddhism. Repeatable.

MSSN660 (2-3)
Witnessing to People of Another Religions
Development and evaluation of various forms of Christian witness among the peoples of other religions such as Muslims, Jews, Hindus, and Buddhists. Repeatable.

MSSN676 (2-3)
History of Christian Mission
History of the expansion of the Christian church, from the first century until the present. At the discretion of the Department of Church History, this course may fulfill a Church History elective requirement.

MSSN685 (2-3)
Strategies for World Mission
A concentrated study of mission theory and strategy, cultural perspectives of mission service, and basic principles of church growth.

MSSN721 & 722 (4, 4)
Spiritual and Theological Basis for Ministry I, II
Ministry is based on being as well as doing. This course builds the spiritual and theological foundation from which the practice of mission and ministry grows and seeks to lead the student into a self-reflection and examination of life and belief.

MSSN731 & 732 (4, 4)
Cultural and Religious Analysis I, II
Using the tools of cultural, social, anthropological, and religious analysis, the specific context and challenges of mission will be analyzed and described in depth as a basis for ministry. The course content will be shaped to fit the local situation.

MSSN741 & 742 (4, 4)
Strategy Development - I, II
Study of contemporary strategies of mission as a framework and foundation for the development and practice of a ministry plan for the current situation. The role of leadership in this process is highlighted. Prerequisite: MSSN731 cultural and Religious Analysis.
