CENTER FOR INTENSIVE ENGLISH PROGRAMS
Jeanette Bryson, Director

Andrews University English Language Institute (AU-ELI)
AU-ELI offers an intensive English Language study program to help students whose native language is not English develop the academic skills needed to succeed in their degree programs. It is designed to improve the understanding, speaking, and writing of English through the study of reading, grammar, vocabulary building, composition, and oral and aural practice. Classes are offered at the basic, intermediate, and advanced levels. Students are required to take an English placement test and are placed accordingly in appropriate levels.

Basic-level students may take only English courses (ENSL105-001, 002, 003). Students are usually promoted to Intermediate English after one or two semesters in Basic. (Students entering the program with little or no English typically require two semesters to complete this level.)

Intermediate-level students are required to take ENSL106-001, 002, 003, 004. In addition, intermediate students may take one regular university course, or ENSL108 and/or ENSL109. Students are usually ready for Advanced English after one semester in Intermediate.

All advanced-level students are required to take ENSL115 and ENSL116. In addition, they may be required to take ENSL107 and/or ENSL108 as indicated by placement test results. ENSL109 is optional. To maintain full-time student status, advanced students are expected to take some regular courses concurrently. Successful completion of Advanced English requires passing an exit test. Most students exit the program after one semester in Advanced.

A student enrolled in ELI is released from the program after achieving one of the following levels of English proficiency (although some departments may require higher scores):
1. Successful completion of Advanced English and the ELI exit exam
2. A paper-based TOEFL score of 550, with no section score lower than 52, and with a TWE of 5.0 or a passing grade on the essay section of the ELI exit exam
3. A computer-based TOEFL score of 213, with no section score lower than 19 (20 in writing)
4. A MELAB score of 80, with no section score lower than 77

ADVENTIST COLLEGES ABROAD/ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

International students from colleges which are members of the ACA Consortium have the opportunity to study at Andrews University and earn Andrews credit which can be transferred to the student’s home college. ACA students may take regular classes after completing English requirements (as above). In addition to course work, ACA students experience American culture by participating in a variety of field trips and activities.

ACTION AMERICA

ACTION AMERICA offers short-term intensive language study, combined with cultural and professional experiences and travel, for non-credit students. Participants must be at least 16 years old and must acquire a visitor’s visa for entry into the United States. Two intensive month-long sessions are held each summer, and a six-week session is held in January/February. In addition, intensive non-credit classes are available throughout the academic year.
