With authorization from the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools and other controlling organizations, the various schools of the university have entered into official academic affiliation/extension arrangements with certain educational institutions in North America and abroad. The programs range from academic monitoring of existing institutional programs to using institutions as extension campuses or examination centers for graduate and undergraduate education, with degrees being conferred upon students at the next official Andrews University graduation at the main campus and after completion and verification by the Office of Academic Records of all degree requirements. The affiliation/extension programs vary from courses offered in a variety of disciplines to full degree programs. Details of specific courses, approved curricula and programs are available from the Office of Affiliation & Extension Programs.

The Affiliation and Extension Programs Committee authorizes and reviews all University policies related to such affiliations and extensions. The administrative and academic committees charged with academic quality control and relevant policy development also govern the extension programs. Financial policies as described in this bulletin are applicable to extension programs in North America. All credits earned in Andrews extension programs are valid on the Andrews campus or any accredited extension campus. Once accepted into an Andrews program, students may transfer between home and extension campuses.

Affiliation/Extension Programs

Undergraduate

Undergraduate affiliation and extension programs are offered at Columbia Union College, Maryland; Hong Kong Adventist College, Hong Kong; Newbold College, England; Tyrifjord Vidergaende Skole, Norway; and University of the Southern Caribbean, Trinidad. Andrews University confers approved associate and baccalaureate degrees on those students who have fulfilled admission, academic and program requirements at these centers.

Graduate

Graduate affiliation and extension programs are offered in a number of disciplines by the various schools of the University. The College of Arts & Sciences offers the MA-TESL in Seoul, Korea. The School of Business Administration offers the MBA degree in Trinidad and Portland. The School of Business Administration is a unit of Andrews University and is authorized by the State of Oregon to offer and confer the Master of Business Administration degree described in this bulletin, following a determination that State academic standards will be satisfied under OAR 583-030. Inquiries concerning the standards or school compliance may be directed to the Office of Degree Authorization, 1500 Valley River Dr, Suite 100, Eugene OR 97401.

The School of Education offers the MA Education and the MEd degrees at Spicer Memorial College, India. It also offers the MA in Educational Psychology and Counseling and the MA in Educational Administration at University of the Southern Caribbean, Trinidad.

The Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary offers the MA (Religion) at Babcock University, Nigeria; Middle East University, Lebanon; Romanian Adventist Theological Institute, Romania; Spicer Memorial College, India; and Zaokski Adventist Seminary, Russia. It offers the Doctor of Ministry at Babcock University, Nigeria; Zaokski Adventist Seminary, Russia; and Helderburg College, South Africa. In North America, the Seminary offers the MA in Pastoral Ministry degree and courses toward the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees at several locations. In addition, the University offers the interdisciplinary, interschool MSA degree (International Development) at three sites: Chile, Italy and Kenya.

Other International Educational Opportunities

Andrews University co-sponsors Adventist Colleges Abroad—a program in which qualified students study overseas while completing requirements for graduation at Andrews. This language and cultural immersion is available in nine locations: Argentina, Austria, Brazil, France, Greece, Italy, Singapore, Spain and Taiwan. Participation is not limited to language majors. Contact the chair of the Department of International Language Studies for further information.

Undergraduate students may study abroad in the Andrews University Year in England at Newbold College program. The purpose of this program is to allow students to participate in a culturally enriching academic experience. Information about this program can be secured by writing Newbold College or contacting the Director of Affiliation and Extension Programs at Andrews University. Students should make application directly to the Admissions Office, Newbold College, Binfield, Bracknell, Berkshire, England RG42 4AN.
