Mission

The Andrews University Department of English constitutes a vital component of this distinctive Seventh-day Adventist institution of higher learning. It draws together a diverse community of learners committed to seeking knowledge, affirming faith, and changing the world. Within the framework of Christian faith and purpose, it develops graduates who are competent, creative and critical readers, writers and thinkers, capable of a variety of careers and scholarly pursuits.

English majors and minors working on secondary teaching certification in English must complete the following courses within or in addition to the major and minor requirements outlined below: ENGL270, 300, 378, 445 (or acceptable alternative), 459, 474 (or a 4th credit in ENGL300 for brief history of English language), and ENGL407 or 408.

English Proficiency Standards

Students whose first language is not English must meet certain English-language proficiency standards before they are accepted into any program in the Department of English. To qualify for admission, students must have passed (within the past year) the test(s) listed below with score(s) at or above those indicated:

1. TOEFL score of 600 with no section score lower than 60 and a minimum TWE (Test of Written English) score of 5.5 or a computer TOEFL of 250 with no section score lower than 19.
2. MELAB average score of 93 with no section lower than 90.

Undergraduate Programs

BA: English (36)

Requirements: ENGL185, 267, 345 and 460. The remaining courses in the major should be selected in relationship to one of the following emphases:

Literature Emphasis

This emphasis is recommended for those planning to do graduate work in English or for those planning professional careers that demand a broad liberal arts background. In addition to the core requirements of the major, students must take ENGL450; one of ENGL255 (Biblical, World, or Women's Literature), 425 (with a cultural literature topic), or ENGL445; three of ENGL270, 375, 376, 378; one additional upper division literature course; two additional courses (excluding ENGL110, 115, 215), of which one must be an upper division writing course.

Writing Emphasis

This emphasis is suitable for those planning professional careers as writers or those particularly interested in the teaching of writing. Students selecting this emphasis are encouraged to select a second major or minor that will enhance future employment. In addition to the core courses required in the major, students must take ENGL315, 438, 454, 467 (3 credits); two of ENGL270, 375, 376 and 378. Select remaining credits from any English Department courses (excluding ENGL110, 115, 215) or JOUR330, 445, and 467. Cognate: JOUR230.

BS: Elementary Education, Major in Language Arts (36)

Requirements: COMM280, 450, EDTE418, ENGL250, 267, 300, 407, SPPA435; two courses from ENGL270, 375, 376, 378; one from ENGL438, 454 or 467. Remaining credits from COMM320, 436, 456, 475, EDTE420, 484, ENGL445, 460, SPPA234.

Minor in English (21)

Requirements: ENGL267; three of ENGL270, 375, 376, 378, 445; one of 300, 460; one of 250, 315, 345, 438, 454, 467, JOUR230, 445. Remaining credits from English courses not previously selected. Does not include ENGL110, 115, 215.

Minor in Teaching English as a Second Language (20–21)

Requirements: ENGL300 (4), ENGL407 or 408 (2–3), ENGL435 Topics: TESL Professional (1), ENGL435 Topics: Teaching & Learning for the ESL Classroom (1), ENGL440, 460, 465, 469, 490. Does not include ENGL110, 115, 215.

Cognate: COMM280

Recommended Elective: ENGL435 Topics: TESL Certificate (2)

Minor in Language Arts with an Elementary Education Major (24)

Requirements: COMM450, EDTE418, ENGL250, 267, 300, 407; one of ENGL270, 378; select remaining courses from COMM280, 436, EDTE420, 484, ENGL454, 460, SPPA234, 321, 435.

Second Language, Intensive Courses

Jeanette Bryson, Director

Students needing to complete English language proficiency requirements in order to meet academic and professional requirements may enroll in courses offered in reading, grammar, composition, and oral/aural practice. Students who complete the prescribed Advanced Level classes with a grade of B or better, and who pass the Exit Exam will be granted a certificate of completion. The certificate indicates that the student has completed the Intensive English Language Program. Upon completion, students may apply for a transfer into the major of choice. Those planning to complete an undergraduate Bachelor of Arts degree may apply for a foreign language waiver.

Action America

Action America offers short-term intensive language study, combined with cultural and professional experiences and travel, for non-credit students.

Participants must be at least 16 years of age and must acquire a student visa for entry into the United States. The application for Action America includes the information needed for the I-20. After receiving the I-20 document from Andrews University, the student will need to make an appointment with the American Consulate in the country of origin to apply for the visa. One four-week intensive is offered in July. Customized sessions can be arranged for groups of twelve or more.

Graduate Programs

The Department of English offers the Master of Arts: English or Teaching English as a Second Language. It also cooperates with the School of Education in offering the Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) degree. In addition, the Department of English participates in offering the Master of Arts: Communication described on p. 141.

Master of Arts

The Department of English offers two programs for its Master of Arts. In addition to the general requirements for the MA degree as stated on p. 49, the required core courses are ENGL589, 597, 520 or 525 Topics in Literary Studies of the English Bible (3), and 595 or 699 (a minimum of 1 credit). Additional requirements are described below.

English Emphasis

This program provides a balanced array of courses in literature and literary theory, composition and rhetoric, and language. Additional required courses are: ENGL450, a second seminar 589, and at least one graduate course from each of the three areas of literature, composition, and language.

Teaching English as a Second Language (TESL) Emphasis

This program includes extensive study of the English language and linguistics and is particularly appropriate for those who plan to teach English to speakers of other languages or do further work in linguistics. The additional required courses are ENGL465 (twice with different content), 466, 469, 505 (2 credits), 530, 540; a minimum of 2 credits in 435 or 525; and two from 474, a writing course (ENGL550 recommended), or a literature course.

MA Admission and Degree Requirements

1. Applicants must meet the English proficiency standards listed on p. 45.
2. Applicants must have earned a minimum of 20 semester hours (30 quarter credits) in English courses as prerequisites, including ENGL460 (or its equivalent).
 - These prerequisites are in addition to the General Education composition requirement.
 - It is desirable to have completed an English undergraduate major of at least 30 semester hours (45 quarter credits).
 - Students taking the MA: English (TESL) must have completed ENGL300 (or its equivalent) as a prerequisite.
 - Applicants with fewer English prerequisite credits than the minimum number required must remove the deficiencies by taking additional English courses other than those required for the MA degree.
3. Applicants must demonstrate proficiency in a foreign language by having done one of the following:
 - Earned credit through the intermediate college level with a minimum average grade of C.
 - Passed an exam approved by the English Department.
 - Completed their education through secondary school in a first language other than English.
4. Students must complete a minimum of 33 English graduate credits.
5. Candidates must pass written comprehensive examinations (ENGL670).
6. Candidates must complete one of the following options:
 - A. Project paper (30-50+ pages)
 - B. Two project papers (each a minimum of 20 pages)
 - C. MA thesis (75-100+ pages)

Master of Arts in Teaching

This degree prepares students for certification and teaching English in elementary or secondary schools. Prerequisite: At least 10 semester credits (15 quarter credits) in English courses, exclusive of the General Education composition requirement. See also pp. 47–51. In consultation with the department chair, certain of the courses listed below may be applied toward such a program.

An alternative Master of Arts in Teaching program is designed for those preparing to teach English to speakers of other languages; it requires a minimum of 15 English semester credits including courses ENGL460, 465, 469, ENGL505 (1 credit), and two from 466, 525 (Topics in Linguistics), 540.

General & Interdisciplinary Studies serves students who need a general, individualized and interdisciplinary degree, or specific courses that do not naturally fit in with any existing departments. The goal is to cooperate with the mission of the sponsoring departments and the fundamental mission of Andrews University.

On-Campus Degrees

Baccalaureate Degrees in General Studies

Andrews University offers a Bachelor of Science and a Bachelor of Arts degree in General Studies. Designed to serve students with career and personal goals that may not accurately match existing degrees, the General Studies degree is available through a special application process.

BA: General Studies
BS: General Studies

Degree Requirements

1. Make application prior to taking the last 30 credits of a bachelor's degree. The approval process includes consideration of the appropriateness of the degree package for the career and personal goals of the applicant.
2. Fulfill the general baccalaureate degree requirements.
3. Complete General Education requirements as recommended for all BS/BA degrees.
