Where is the ACCC?

Berrien Springs on the campus of Andrews University. The ACCC is located in Room 156 in Bell Hall (see the map on the reverse side.) Free parking is available in the parking lot in front of Bell Hall.

Who can be served?

The ACCC provides mental health services to children, adolescents, and adults who reside in the Michiana area. Services are provided to persons regardless of worldview, race, gender, religious affiliation, culture, or other characteristics. All information obtained from clients is treated as confidential. Ethical standards of the American Psychological Association and the American Counseling Association are adhered to by ACCC staff members.

What is the ACCC?

The Andrews Community Counseling Center (ACCC) provides professional counseling and psychological services to children and adults in the Andrews University community and residents of Michigan/Indiana at no cost. The Center was established as a training facility for masters and doctoral students working toward graduate degrees in counseling and counseling psychology in the Department of Graduate Psychology and Counseling. These graduate student counselors are supervised by faculty who are professional counselors and/or licensed psychologists.

How can appointments be scheduled?

To schedule an appointment with a counselor, call (269) 471-6238. Please arrive 10 minutes early for the first appointment, allowing at least 90 minutes for the first meeting. The ACCC is closed during student breaks between semesters and on holidays as marked in the Andrews University calendar.
