

VETERANS DAY

A silhouette illustration of a group of people, including children and adults, climbing a hill. One person is helping another up, and another is in a wheelchair being pushed up. The scene is set against a vibrant sunset sky with orange and yellow clouds. The silhouettes are dark against the bright background.

Pledge of Allegiance

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands,
one nation, under God, indivisible,
with liberty and justice for all.

The Star-Spangled Banner

O say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Speaker Biography

James J. North Jr. holds an AB in theology from Atlantic Union College as well as an MDiv and DMin from the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University. North also received chaplaincy training from the U.S. Air Force Chaplain School at Maxwell Air Force Base in Alabama.

Early in his career, North worked as an associate pastor in Oregon for three years. Following this, in 1966, North became a chaplain for the U.S. Air Force. For the next 20 years he served at a number of locations including Vietnam, California, Virginia, Germany and Texas. In 1986, after his 20-year stint in the U.S. Air Force, he retired with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

North began his career at Andrews University in 1986 as a chaplain for Adventist Information Ministries (AIM). He soon became an assistant professor of religion for the Department of Religion & Biblical Languages and later an associate professor of pastoral care and chaplaincy for the Department of Christian Ministry at the Seminary where he served until 2013. He has been a faculty for over 25 years.

When he was not teaching, North held several other positions at Andrews including advisor for various clubs and forums, chair and member of numerous committees, director for the Seminary Chorus and the Seminary Chaplaincy Program, University ombudsperson and a Seminary Student Life representative.

His wife Audrey is a retired RN who enjoys homemaking and volunteer community service. They have been blessed with four adult children and eight grandchildren

“No duty is more urgent than that of returning thanks”

James Allen
