

LIST OF CIEP ESL COURSES

Level 1 Core Courses

Level 1 CIEP students begin their courses with limited knowledge of English vocabulary, word forms, and grammatical structures. In completing Level 1, students are expected to reach a basic level of communication in everyday written and spoken English.

ENSL 110	Level 1 Grammar	Introduction to English grammar with emphasis on basic grammar usage in communicative contexts, both oral and written.
ENSL 111	Level 1 Reading & Writing (Summer Only)	Introduction to reading and writing as connected skills with emphasis on reading and producing texts (sentences and paragraphs) in communicative contexts.
ENSL 112	Level 1 Listening & Speaking	Introduction to listening and speaking as connected skills with emphasis on effective communication.
ENSL 113	Level 1 Reading (Fall & Spring)	Introduction to reading in English with emphasis on strategies for developing reading fluency.
ENSL 114	Level 1 Writing (Fall & Spring)	Introduction to writing in English with emphasis on producing texts (sentences and paragraphs) in communicative contexts.

Level 2 Core Classes

Level 2 CIEP students begin their courses with a foundational knowledge of English vocabulary, word forms, and grammatical structures. In completing Level 2, students are expected to reach an intermediate level of communication in everyday written and spoken English.

Andrews University

Center for Intensive English Programs

ENSL 120	Level 2 Grammar	Development of English grammatical skills necessary for clear communication, both oral and written.
ENSL 121	Level 2 Reading & Writing	Development of reading and writing as connected skills with emphasis on reading for critical thinking and producing texts (paragraphs) in communicative contexts.
ENSL 122	Level 2 Listening & Speaking	Development of listening and speaking as connected skills with emphasis on effective communication.

Level 3 Core Courses

Level 3 CIEP students begin their courses with a more sophisticated knowledge of English vocabulary, word forms, and grammatical structures. In completing Level 3, students are expected to reach an advanced level of communication in everyday written and spoken English and demonstrate an emerging ability to communicate in academic contexts.

ENSL 210	Level 3 Grammar	Development of English grammatical skills necessary for accurate usage in a variety of communicative and academic contexts, both oral and written.
ENSL 211	Level 3 Reading & Writing	Development of reading and writing as connected skills with emphasis on reading for critical thinking and producing texts (paragraphs and essays) in a variety of communicative and academic contexts.
ENSL 212	Level 3 Listening & Speaking	Development of listening and speaking as connected skills with emphasis on effective communication in academic and nonacademic contexts.

Andrews University

Center for Intensive English Programs

Level 4 Core Courses

Level 4 CIEP students begin their courses with an advanced-level knowledge of English vocabulary, word forms, and grammatical structures. In completing Level 4, students are expected to show mastery of communication in everyday written and spoken English and demonstrate an accomplished ability to communicate in academic contexts.

ENSL 220	Level 4 Grammar	Intensive review of English grammar with emphasis on accurate grammar usage in a variety of communicative and academic contexts, both oral and written.
ENSL 221	Level 4 Reading & Writing	Mastery of reading and writing as connected skills with emphasis on reading for critical thinking and producing texts (essays) using research in a variety of communicative and academic contexts.
ENSL 122	Level 4 Listening & Writing	Mastery of listening and speaking as connected skills with emphasis on fluency and effective communication in academic and nonacademic contexts.

Level 2-4 Skill-building Courses

CIEP students take skill-building courses in addition to their core courses. These courses focus on improved pronunciation and mixed-skills practice in the areas of critical thinking, reading and discussion, and college-level writing.

ENSL 124	Level 2 TED Talks English	Focus on developing English language skills by discussing and responding to issues in a variety of disciplines presented in TED Talks. For students at a lower-intermediate English proficiency levels.
----------	---------------------------	---

Andrews University

Center for Intensive English Programs

ENSL 223

Level 3 Pronunciation

English pronunciation improvement with emphasis on vowels, consonants, word stress, and intonation patterns. For students at an upper-intermediate level.

ENSL 225

Level 4 American Ways: Reading & Discussion

Focus on reading a variety of academic texts about American history and culture for the purpose of critical thinking and discussion and with emphasis on group presentations, interviews, and interaction with native English speakers. For students at an advanced level.