CUSTOMIZED GROUP INSTRUCTION
The Department of English can provide a customized program for your school, conference, or union.

A customized program may
- Include special emphasis such as teaching young learners, language assessment, or teaching methods for secondary content-area teachers.
- Have special dates and varying duration.
- Take place at Andrews University or at your location.

For additional information about a customized program, please contact Janet Blackwood, at janet@andrews.edu or 269-471-3168.

ADVANTAGES OF STUDYING WITH ANDREWS UNIVERSITY
- Flexibility in scheduling - Students can take one or two courses each semester.
- Online or in the classroom - Join us on-campus for a summer session or complete all of the coursework online.
- Qualified Faculty - Courses are taught by supportive professors who have experience in multicultural classrooms.
- Study with other NAD teachers - The program is designed for teachers already working in the field, so class discussions focus on real-world experiences.
- One year program - You can earn an endorsement in just one year.
- Affordable tuition - Courses offered online through the Adventist Learning Community are just $250/credit.
- Faith-based perspective - All of our programs integrate faith and learning.
ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE ENDORSEMENT

NAD-certified teachers can add an endorsement in English as a Second Language (ESL) by completing 12 semester credits of coursework in ESL. Beginning in Fall 2015, courses designed to equip teachers to plan effective instructional programs for English-language learners will be offered through the Adventist Learning Community with Andrews University credit. Teachers will gain insight into language learning and teaching and practical instructional strategies.

COURSES AVAILABLE ONLINE FOR ESL ENDORSEMENT

ENGL300  Modern English Grammar
ENGL460  Linguistics
ENGL435  TESOL Certificate/Methods
ENGL540  Language & Culture
ENGL569  Second Language Acquisition

Teachers may choose between either a fully online option or a blended option, with some classes on campus during the summer and the remainder completed online.

$250 per credit through the Adventist Learning Community

Accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.
