Resources for Review

2. Web sites: Try these supplemental Web sites for math help if you get stuck on a topic in ALEKS and can’t make progress with the PPL instruction:
   - http://www.khanacademy.org (short videos on many topics)
   - http://www.wtamu.edu/academic/anns/mps/math/mathlab/
   - http://www.uiowa.edu/~examserv/mathmatters/index.html
   - http://www.algebrahelp.com
   - http://www.purplemath.com/index.htm (Try the “How do you really do this stuff?” link)
   - http://www.math.com
   - https://schoolyourself.org/
3. Textbooks & videos: Basic Mathematics, Elementary & Intermediate Algebra, and College Algebra textbooks are on reserve at the Circulation Desk in the James White library. In addition, the Media Center on the upper floor of the library has many videos and high school textbooks. The library in the Math Commons also has books that you can use for reference (see Karen for help).
4. Math Center: The Math Center (HYH112) is open during the fall and spring semesters from 4:00-7:00 pm Mon – Thu but is closed during holidays and the summer months.

Information about the Exam

1. Please bring your ID card to the exam.
2. The purposes of the exam are to make sure you have the math skills you need to succeed in college and in your career and to place you in a math class where you will be successful.
3. Your score will have a letter (E, M, or P) and a number from 0 to 5. E and M mean extremely and moderately deficient in arithmetic, whereas P means proficient in arithmetic. The number indicates how much algebra, precalculus, and trigonometry you know. The prerequisite for MATH145 Reasoning with Functions, MATH165 College Algebra, MATH 166 College Algebra for Business, and STAT285 Elementary Statistics is P2; the prerequisite for MATH 168 Precalculus is P3; and the prerequisite for MATH191 Calculus I is P5.
4. You will not be able to use calculators except ones that the PPL exam provides online for you for certain problems. We provide a pencil and scratch paper for you to use.
5. The time limit is 120 minutes.
6. The exam score will appear on your screen when you have finished the PPL exam, and we will post the MPE score in Banner that same day. You can see your score at the bottom of your iVue profile page.
7. The university will charge a $21 fee for the exam to your student account.
