The Andrews University Wind Symphony is a performance-oriented wind band devoted to the preparation of instrumentalists and conductors for professional careers in music performance and education. Additionally, it provides Andrews University students, staff, faculty, and community members with an avenue to continue their involvement in the performing arts. The Wind Symphony has performed in England, France, Spain, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Canada, and throughout the United States. The group just returned from touring to Thailand during Spring Break 2019, where they had the opportunity to perform eight concerts in different parts of the country.

Jason Gresl, multi-clarinetist, has performed in a variety of orchestral and chamber music settings throughout the US as well as in Italy, Panama, Belgium, and the Netherlands. By day, he stays busy as the clarinet instructor at Andrews University, Lake Michigan College and Sheridan College; by night, Jason can be found performing contemporary classical concerts with his duo Claricello, freelancing in various Michiana orchestras, and exploring multidisciplinary arts with his Muses' Workshop chamber music concerts. In addition to recent performances with the South Bend Symphony and recitals at the Ruthmere and Snite museums, he has been regularly spotted in the pit orchestra for shows including The Book of Mormon, Wicked, The Phantom of the Opera, In The Heights and the national tour of Elf-The Musical. Jason earned his degrees from Oberlin Conservatory and University of Colorado-Boulder, continuing with post-graduate studies at Rotterdams Conservatorium in the Netherlands. He can be heard on recordings produced by the Innova and Pro Organo labels. In his spare time, Jason attempts to learn feats of wonder with decks of cards and explores the culinary adventures of Thai and Indian cuisines.

Byron Graves conducts the Andrews University Wind Symphony and also coordinates the wind and percussion studies and music education programs. Prior to coming to Andrews University, he held K-12 teaching positions at Andrews Academy, Ruth Murdoch Elementary School, Great Lakes Adventist Academy, Cedar Lake Elementary School, and Union Springs Academy. Dr. Graves recently completed his doctorate in music education at Boston University, and also has a master's degree in instrumental conducting from Central Michigan University, and undergraduate degrees in clarinet performance and music education from Andrews University. He firmly believes that music brings you closer to God in a way nothing else can, and he is passionate about helping mentor the next generation of Adventist music educators.
