CHAIR'S MESSAGE

DR. RODNEY PALMER

DMIN, CTSS

The Department of Religion and Biblical Languages at Andrews University equips undergraduate students by offering degree programs in biblical and theological studies, supporting the General Education ACE program with courses in religion, and preparing men and women for ministry and graduate programs.

Studying the Bible and appreciating its rich, diverse message is a love and vocation we all share in the Religion Department. We seek to develop students who come to the Bible invested in learning how the people of God, throughout biblical history, have responded in their searches for security, stability, and clarity. Our programs seek to launch students on a lifelong pursuit of learning and loving the Scriptures, which have sustained and enriched us for generations.

Through mentoring relationships, our faculty aid in the holistic development of our students by praying and encouraging them as they seek and find their vocations. We find our mission in God's mission of redemption and hope, preparing God's people for service to the church and world.

We are united in our common commitment to share God's amazing grace and unconditional love that comes to us through the life and teachings, death and resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We invite you to join us on this amazing journey!

The Religion Major is designed as a two-major degree.

Religion majors generally have a second major: their career or employment path. The Religion Major provides biblical depth and spiritual enrichment.

Therefore, each year Religion majors will combine their religion requirements and their second major requirements. Additionally, they will need to complete the ACE requirements for general education.

The Religion Major does not fulfill all Seminary prerequisites.

Students planning to attend Seminary should take a Theology major.

- Freshman= 100 or 200 level courses
- Sophomore= 200 or 300 level courses

PRACTICUM PROGRAM

The Department of Religion and Biblical Languages is fully committed to providing our students with a holistic ministry model, which will enable them to contribute to the development of family, community and church, through training in both the theoretical knowledge and the practical application of a sound, Bible-based Christianity.

The completion of the practicum program is compulsory for all theology majors, as this is the avenue through which students will practice and assimilate the seven core qualities which form the foundation of the pastoral profession, as outlined by the Ministerial Association of the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists.

Every other year, a Field School of Evangelism is conducted. Theology majors participate in an evangelistic series as part of the requirement for RELP 350. Religion majors can also attend.

For additional information, speak with Dr. Palmer.

STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

1. RELIGION FORUM

All majors in Religion & Theology are required to attend the weekly Religion Forum on Tuesdays from 11:30 a.m. -12:20 p.m. in the Newbold Auditorium in Buller Hall. The Forum provides worship and fellowship, departmental information, training in various aspects of ministry, and lectures on various topics of interest for any university student. Religion Forum is a zero-credit practicum class; each semester requires registration and attendance for every theology and religion major. Because ministry involvement is part of religious education, Religion Forum also includes a ministry requirement or service hours each semester.

2. BARNABAS INTERNSHIP

Many religion and theology students work as interns at a local church or conference each summer. This practical ministry experience helps students gain practical ministry skills while earning a scholarship for the following school year. For more information, see Dr. Gallos early in spring semester.

3. IN-DEPTH PREACHING

Through in-DEPTH, we have scheduled and sent students to preach in churches throughout the Lake Union Conference (Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin) and beyond. See Dr. Palmer for more information.

4. THETA ALPHA KAPPA (TAK)

This is the national honor society open to Theology and Religion majors with a 3.50 GPA in their major and a 3.0 GPA overall. Dr. Wells is the TAK sponsor.

5. ANDREWS MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION (AMA)

The AMA is the club for all theology and religion majors. The club is active in ministry on campus and the community. Since you are a member and will have club dues charged to your account, get involved and join the many activities for service, worship, and fellowship.
