

Measure 4 (Initial and Advanced): Ability of completers to be hired.

Initial Level

The TPP had 100% employment with 2021-2022 completers. One candidate chose not to enter the teaching profession. The candidates earn both state certification as well as the Seventh-day Adventist (SDA) certification allowing them to teach in either the SDA educational system or the public system. All seven completers in 2021-2022 are teaching in the SDA educational system.

Advanced Level

Educational Leadership

7/7 (100%) of EDAL completers in the data cycle for 2020-2021 were immediately employed after graduation as educational leaders.

School Psychology

86% (6 of 7) of 2021- 2022 school psychology completers are employed in the field of school psychology. All were offered positions at the sites where their internships were completed suggesting employer satisfaction with the candidates' performance.
