Measure 4 (Initial and Advanced): Ability of completers to be hired.

Initial Level

The TPP had 100% employment (5/5) of completers (according to the CAEP definition of completers). The candidates earn both state certification as well as the Seventh-day Adventist (SDA) certification allowing them to teach in either the SDA educational system or the public system.

Advanced Level

Educational Leadership

100% (9/9) of EDAL completers in the data cycle for 2023-2024 were immediately employed upon graduation as educational leaders: 7 in the Seventh-day Adventist system of education and 2 in Public Schools.

School Psychology

100% (1 of 1) of 2023-2024 school psychology completers are employed in the field of school psychology (See Artifact 2025SP4 Employment Rate).
