Part 1: Course Information

Course Description

Emphasis is placed on interpersonal skills for the workplace. Students examine components of interpersonal communication such as listening, perception, managing conflict, etc., then apply specific strategies to build relationships.

Required Text/Material

Looking Out Looking In. (2017). S.I.: Cengage Learning. ISBN-978-1-305-64534-9

NOTE: Textbooks for online courses may be purchased from any supplier. For financial aid in payment, contact your financial advisor at the university where you are completing your degree. Andrews University degree students who have confirmed that funds are available will then purchase the books themselves and send receipts to their financial advisor for reimbursement.

Credit Hour and Commitment

This is a 3 credit hour course. Three hours are allotted per week for reading and understanding of content. Outside of reviewing and reading the chapter, 6 to 9 additional hours should be allocated for Assignments and projects. You will have two exams: a midterm and a final, 4 mini projects, end of chapter assignments, 8 discussion vlogs, 2 movie analysis, and a self-concept paper. See class syllabus. In order to do well in this class, you must be prepared before each assignment with reading and a thorough understanding of the chapter. Additionally, each assignment will require the ability to see and share elements that are reflected in your personal work. Suggested schedule(s) to accomplish this work are included in the syllabus.

Institutional Outcomes:

- 1.a. Demonstrate competence in intellectual, affective, and practical skills to prepare for careers in the twenty-first century, lifelong learning and service.
- 1.b. Select and apply intellectual, affective, and practical skills from their field of study to solve meaningful problems. The identified transferable skills for undergraduate students are: information literacy, quantitative literacy, engaging diverse perspectives, ethical reasoning, analytical inquiry in the form of problem solving and creative thinking, communication, wellness and transferable life skills.

Course Learning Outcomes

Interpersonal Communication focuses on the reasons why we communicate and provides an understanding in regards to miscommunication and conflict. This course is designed to impact relationships by using techniques to engage with those we communicate with and not to manipulate others into doing what we want. During the course biblical principles will be emphasized that correlate with the chapter and focus our efforts on applying concepts to daily life.

The specific course objectives are as follows:

1. To evaluate current relationships and their communication style.
2. To identify ways for improving important relationships.
3. To explore how the Bible correlates with principles from the chapter.
4. To describe how the communication processes impacts our ability to effectively communicate.
5. To identify challenges that may arise from interpersonal communication.
6. To apply the knowledge, skills and attitudes that will increase effective communication.

Part 2: Course Methods and DeliveryMethods of Instruction

Methods of instruction include assigned readings from the textbook and the course material, 5 vlogs, end of chapter exercises, online exams, and written papers as they relate to your own interpersonal experiences in various forms throughout the course.

Course/Technical Requirements

- Internet connection (DSL, LAN, or cable connection desirable).

LearningHub Access

This course is delivered online through LearningHub at <http://learninghub.andrews.edu> .

Your username and password are your Andrews username and password. You need to activate your username and password to access LearningHub.

Please do this online here: <https://vault.andrews.edu/vault/pages/activation/information.jsp> if you haven't already. (269) 471-6016 or email helpdesk@andrews.edu if you need assistance.

If you need technical assistance at any time during the course, or to report a problem with LearningHub, please email dlit@andrews.edu or call 269-471-3960.

Part 3: Course Requirements

Important Note: Activity and assignment details will be explained in detail within each learning module. If you have any questions, please contact your instructor.

Your Schedule

In Learning Hub, you will access online lessons, course materials, and resources. This course is self-paced. You must complete the course within 180 days. This is the Consortium policy. You may have a stricter deadline imposed by graduation, financial aid, or other restrictions.

Start by creating a schedule for completion of the course.

- Determine your deadline. Do you need a transcript sent to your home institution?
- Working from your deadline, count backwards. Allow 2 weeks after you take your final exam for your final grade to be calculated. Allow another 2 weeks for the transcript to be processed and sent.
- Now use the suggested schedules to create a schedule for yourself that ensures completion 4 weeks before your deadline.

Submit your course plan to your instructor within Learning Hub AND discipline yourself to make regular progress.

Assessment Descriptions:

Vlogs

You will participate in 8 vlogs throughout the semester. The vlogs will explore your experience regarding a concept that will be provided from the chapter.

Self Concept Paper

In conjunction with chapter 2 you will interview three people and ask several questions about yourself to see if they view you the same way as you see yourself. The goal of this assignment is to develop a deeper understanding of your image from not just your eyes but from those around you.

Mini Projects:

These assignments include the Interpersonal relationship analysis, Perception Experiment, Non-verbal experiment, and Listening experiment in order to explore how others perceive you and are impacted by your behavior. To get the most from these experiments, you must be creative with the prompts and associate themes highlighted in the chapter in accordance with your own personal experience.

Knapp's Stages of Relational Development:

What relationship are you currently in? You will identify the relationship that you would like to evaluate and understand where the relationship falls on Knapp's stages of development. Write a paper describing the stages of relational development and maintenance that you have encountered. Present examples from that relationship that exemplify the stages of the model.

Movie Analysis:

Students will be required to watch 2 movies and analyze them along with the assigned chapter. What concepts are portrayed in the Movie that matches concepts within the chapter? How did the characters behave? What interpersonal skill have you learned that could have changed or enhanced the current situation and its outcome?

Chapter Assignments:

Students will complete 8 chapter assignments to explore concepts in more detail. Students will evaluate and apply concepts from the chapter to real life scenarios.

Exams

There are two exams for this course. The midterm exam covers material from Lessons 1-7 and is made up of fill-in-the-blank and essay questions. It is worth 50 points. You will be allowed 120 minutes to take this exam. This exam is worth 5% of your grade. The final exam covers material from Lessons 8-16 and is made up of matching, essay and fill-in-the-blank questions. It is worth 50 points. You will be allowed 120 minutes to take this exam. This exam is worth 5% of your grade. Both exams require proctoring.

Follow prompts in the course space to set up your exam session. In each module that contains an exam, you will find what to review and what materials are allowed (if any) during the exam.

Please read the important information about taking exams and how online proctoring works at www.andrews.edu/distance/students/exams.html. Then follow the instructions that apply to your situation on the exam request form to set up your exam session.

Please note that an exam code is never released to the student. All students must present photo identification before each exam session. Exams can only be proctored after a deadline with approval directly from the instructor to the Testing Center (sdeexams@andrews.edu or 269-471-6566). No exam is returned to the student for review. The instructor, to aid studying for future exams can provide feedback on exams.

Part 5: Course Policies

Withdrawal and Incomplete Policies

The current withdrawal policy can be found online at <http://www.andrews.edu/distance/students/withdrawal.html>. The incomplete policy is found online at <http://www.andrews.edu/web/moodle/public/incompletes.html>.

Maintain Professional Conduct Both in the Classroom and Online

The classroom is a professional environment where academic debate and learning take place. Your instructor will make every effort to make this environment safe for you to share your opinions, ideas, and beliefs. In return, you are expected to respect the opinions, ideas, and beliefs of other students—both in the face-to-face classroom and online communication. Students have the right and privilege to learn in the class, free from harassment and disruption.

Academic Accommodations

Students who require accommodations may request an academic adjustment as follows:

1. Read the Andrews University Disability Accommodation information at <https://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/>
2. Download and fill in the disability form at <http://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/accommodationsreqform.pdf>. Preferably type answers. To save a digital copy, 1) print to file and save or 2) print and scan. Email the completed form and disability documentation (if any) to success@andrews.edu or fax it to 269-471-8407.
3. Email sdestudents@andrews.edu to inform the School of Distance Education that a disability has been reported to Student Success.

Commitment to Integrity

As a student in this course, and at the university, you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning, participation in this course, and integrity in your behavior in and out of this online classroom.

Honesty

Using the work of another student or allowing work to be used by another student jeopardizes not only the teacher-student relationship but also the student's academic standing. Lessons may be discussed with other students, tutors may help to guide a student's work, and textbooks, encyclopedias and other resource materials may be used for additional assistance, but the actual response must be the student's own work.

Exams must be completed in the presence of an approved supervisor without the assistance of books, notes, devices or outside help unless otherwise specified in the exam directions. The student should have no access to the exam either before or after it is taken. A student who gives information to another student to be used in a dishonest way is equally guilty of dishonesty.

Any violation of this policy will be taken before the Higher Education Academic and Curriculum Committee for appropriate punitive action.
