Self-Paced Full Term Courses
This is a Self-Paced Full Term course which follows the Andrews semester schedule. Self-Paced Full Term courses have four important dates: 1) a start date, 2) a midterm completion date, 3) a final completion date, and 4) a course completion date. Please note that all module prior to the midterm must be completed BEFORE the midterm and all modules between the midterm and final must be completed BEFORE the final.

Instructor Contact
Please refer to course in LearningHub for the teacher contact information.

Communication with the Instructor
It is important to remember that while the Internet is available 24 hours a day, your instructor is not. You can expect that your instructor will respond to e-mail message to you within 2 business days during the week and may not be available to respond on weekends.

Part 1: Course Information

Course Description
Andrews University
Students examine the relationship between culture and communication and the ways culture influences values and perceptions. Discussion and activities help students develop and apply analytic and communication skills which enable them to interact with cultural sensitivity and communicate more effectively in intercultural, interethnic, and cross-gender contexts. Particularly useful for students in business, behavioral sciences, education, and theology.

Course Prerequisites
COMM 104 or COMM 230 or permission of instructor

Course Learning Outcomes
Intercultural Communication focuses on the importance of culture in our everyday lives, and the ways in which culture interrelates with and affects the communication processes. Since we live in an era of rapid globalization in which technology has enhanced our ability to communicate across cultures. Intercultural Communication has become indispensable to our ability to function in a diverse workplace, city, and world. This course will take us on an excursion. Keeping a blog to capture interactions between cultures, and a final in depth class assignment to understand another culture and their communication style, this course is designed to increase our sensitivity to others, while minimizing stereotypes. Just as importantly, this trip will increase our awareness of our own cultural backgrounds, and the contexts (social, cultural and historical) in which we live and communicate.

The specific course objectives are as follows:
1. To explain how intercultural communication currently impacts the way we interact with others.
2. To explore cultural self-awareness, other culture awareness, and the influence our message choice has on others from a biblical perspective.
3. To describe how communication processes differ among cultures.
4. To identify challenges that may arise from differences within intercultural interactions and learn ways to creatively address them.
5. To apply the knowledge, skills and attitudes that will increase intercultural competence while retaining Christian values and beliefs.

Required Text/Material

NOTE: Purchase textbooks through any online bookstore, such as amazon.com, which can deliver within 2 days. If you need to use financial aid to purchase textbooks, email sdestudents@andrews.edu, cutting and pasting the textbook information from syllabi, including course title and section, your full name and student ID#.

Credit Hour and Commitment
This is a 3 credit hour course. Three hours are allotted per week for reading and understanding of content. Outside of reviewing and reading the chapter, 6 to 9 additional hours should be allocated for Assignments and projects. You will have three exams: one following each unit, a cross cultural communication Analysis, 3 Unit papers and 22 reflection blog posts. See class syllabus. A rubric will be used for each blog, Unit papers, and the final class project, the recommended time spent in studying and preparing for the course. In order to do well in this class you must be prepared before each assignment with reading and understanding the chapter, being able to see and share elements that are reflected in your personal work. Suggested schedule(s) to accomplish this work are included in this syllabus.

Part 2: Course Methods and Delivery

Methods of Instruction
Methods of instruction include assigned readings from the textbook and the course material, maintaining an intercultural online blog, explore another culture in depth, take online exams, and write reflective papers as they relate to your own cultural assumptions in various forms through the course.

Course/Technical Requirements
- Internet connection (DSL, LAN, or cable connection desirable).

LearningHub Access
This course is delivered online through LearningHub at http://learninghub.andrews.edu

Your username and password are your Andrews username and password. You need to activate your username and password to access LearningHub.
Please do this online here: https://vault.andrews.edu/vault/pages/activation/information.jsp if you haven’t already. If you need assistance, call or email us: (296) 471-6016 or helpdesk@andrews.edu.

If you need technical assistance at any time during the course, or to report a problem with LearningHub, please email dlit@andrews.edu or call (269) 471-3960.

Part 3: Course Requirements

Important Note: Activity and assignment details will be explained in detail within each learning module. If you have any questions, please contact your instructor.

Your Schedule

In Learning Hub, you will access online lessons, course materials, and resources. This course is self-paced but with four specific dates: start date, midterm date, final date and completion date.

Assessment Descriptions

Blogs (220 pts total)
You will participate in 22 blogs throughout the semester. Each blog will demonstrate your reaction to and understanding of the chapters. Questions and thought guidelines are provided as a reference point. In answering the questions think of scenarios to elaborate your thoughts. Ideally two posts each week will be required in order to complete the class in a timely fashion and to provide thought provoking blogs. Quality over quantity but generally each blog should be about 350 to 500 words which equals about a half to a page long.

Reflection Paper (180 pts total)
You will submit a reflection paper at the end of each unit. This reflection paper will focus on identifying and explaining three communication concepts that complement each other from the Unit. Explain how these concepts work together, and how you might apply original thinking to the concepts. Apply these concepts to a situation from real life, TV, movie, etc. The instructor is looking for an understanding of the concepts, application of critical thinking and an understanding of how they apply to life. Each paper should be roughly 800 to 1050 words.

Cross Cultural Project
This assignment requires that you have an intercultural interaction with someone from a culture different than your own, you are responsible for reading about the culture in depth, comparing them to your identified culture noticing similarities and differences. Your evaluation, mingling, and understanding of Hofstede cultural dimension will provide the tools necessary to prepare a slide presentation that will demonstrate your understanding of the culture in comparison to your own. Additionally you will discuss five of the culture dimensions as they relate to the chosen culture. This project will be submitted in five major parts:

Research (60 pts)
In order to complete this assignment you will need to work with someone from another culture. Your goal is to identify a person from another culture (that means country) Once you have identified the “friend” you will be interacting with for this assignment, read up about their culture and history ahead of time. Formulate some questions you want to ask them about their culture and experience living in a culture different from their own. Upload the name of the culture you have identified and 2 page research summary of the identified culture to LH.

Interview (60 pts)
Spend 3-4 “contact hours” with the person or group from a culture different from your own. Talk to them or interview them about their culture. You will observe some facet of speech communication within the different culture, describe correlations between specific speech communication behaviors (as discussed in the course text: Family structures, verbal, nonverbal, and Intercultural Communication in contexts etc.) and other factors within the culture (economic forces, gender, social class, religion, etc.), and consider how this culture differs from the culture in which you currently live. The purpose of this assignment is to help you learn about a cultural system that is different from yours through reading and through interactions with members of that cultural group. Upload the list of interview questions and the response those questions to LH.

Slides (180 pts)
Prepare an 18 to 25 page slide presentation with audio about the intercultural experience in which you have participated. This slide presentation should be submitted in three parts:

Part 1 (60 pts)-The slide presentation should include:
I. Title slide with your name and country [1slide]

II. An introduction slide with a detailed description of the experience interacting with a new culture [1 to 2 slides]

III. Discussion of culture [5 slides]
Choose from:
   a. Individualism vs Collectivism
   b. High Context vs Low Context
   c. High vs Low Power Distance
   d. Masculine vs Feminine
   e. Monochronic vs Polychronic
   f. Uncertainty Avoidance

Part 2 (60 pts)-The slide presentation should include:
IV. Description of the role of social class [1 slide]

V. A discussion of the history of the cultural group you interacted with, as well as the values and assumptions operating in the other cultural system [1 slide]

VI. Explaining your tools of analysis [1 slide]
   a. Your chosen concept(s) from our Communication Between Cultures (see below).

VII. Analysis [5 slides]
   a. Using your chosen concept as a lens (guide), examine the communication of your subject.
Part 3 (60 pts)-The slide presentation should include:

b. Describe correlations between your background, research findings and specific speech communication behaviors of your chosen culture and the one in which you now live. [1 slide]

c. Compare and contrast the communication of your subject culture vs. the culture in which you now live. [1 slide]

VIII. A conclusion that includes a discussion of how the other culture differs from your own and implications for future interactions [1-2 slides]

IX. Sources – all sources in APA format [1-2 slides]

Draft Presentation (50 pts)
Prepare a draft of the complete project, add voice over to slide presentation and upload draft presentation to LearningHub for instructor feedback.

Final Cross Cultural Project (100 pts)
Upload the adjusted final cross cultural project to LH.

Rubrics
Rubrics will be used to assess your Unit I, II, & III papers for clarity and understanding of the chapters and how key concepts can be applied or have been experienced. A Rubric will also be used for the intercultural blog assignment to clarify the objective of the blog. For the cross cultural communication analysis, a rubric will ascertain if the assignment was well thought out and planned in order to thoroughly explore another culture. Finally online exams are given after each unit. All rubrics are attached

Exams
Exams must be completed in the presence of an approved proctor without the assistance of books, notes, devices or outside help unless otherwise specified in the exam review and exam directions.

Please review the current policy on approved proctors before completing the exam request form, which is linked through your course space. It is your responsibility to make arrangements for an approved proctor (unless living near the main campus) and to complete the exam request form at least two weeks prior to each exam date. Bring an official photo ID to show the proctor at the start of the exam session.

The exams are worth 15% of your grade. You are allowed 120 minutes to complete each exam. You are allowed to refer to your book as the time permits.

If you cannot take your exam within the period noted in the email regarding exam arrangements, email sdeexams@andrews.edu with the reason you cannot meet this deadline, and a proposed alternate time within a week, and prior to the course end date.

Completed exams are never available to you or your proctor. Instructors provide feedback on exams other than the final exam. Exam grades can be viewed in the course space, and the final course grade is included in the University Academic Record accessible through your IVUE page.

Part 5: Course Policies

Withdrawal and Incomplete Policies
The current withdrawal policy can be found online at https://www.andrews.edu/distance/students/gradplus/withdrawal.html. The incomplete policy is found online at http://www.andrews.edu/weblmsc/moodle/public/incompletes.html.

Maintain Professional Conduct Both in the Classroom and Online
The classroom is a professional environment where academic debate and learning take place. Your instructor will make every effort to make this environment safe for you to share your opinions, ideas, and beliefs. In return, you are expected to respect the opinions, ideas, and beliefs of other students—both in the face-to-face classroom and online communication. Students have the right and privilege to learn in the class, free from harassment and disruption.

Academic Accommodations
Students who require accommodations may request an academic adjustment as follows:
1. Read the Andrews University Disability Accommodation information at https://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/
2. Download and fill in the disability form at http://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/accommodationsreqform.pdf. Preferably type answers. To save a digital copy, 1) print to file and save or 2) print and scan. Email the completed form and disability documentation (if any) to success@andrews.edu or fax it to (269) 471-8407.
3. Email sdestudents@andrews.edu to inform the School of Distance Education that a disability has been reported to Student Success.

Commitment to Integrity
As a student in this course, and at the university, you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning, participation in this course, and integrity in your behavior in and out of this online classroom.

Commit to Excellence
You deserve a standing ovation based on your decision to enroll in, and effectively complete this course. Along with your pledge of “commitment to Integrity” you are expected to adhere to a “commitment to excellence.” Andrews University has established high academic standards that will truly enhance your writing and communication skills across the disciplines and in diverse milieu with many discourse communities in the workplace.
Honesty

Using the work of another student or allowing work to be used by another student jeopardizes not only the teacher-student relationship but also the student’s academic standing. Lessons may be discussed with other students, tutors may help to guide a student’s work, and textbooks, encyclopedias and other resource materials may be used for additional assistance, but the actual response must be the student’s own work.

Exams must be completed in the presence of an approved supervisor without the assistance of books, notes, devices or outside help unless otherwise specified in the exam directions. The student should have no access to the exam either before or after it is taken. A student who gives information to another student to be used in a dishonest way is equally guilty of dishonesty.

Any violation of this policy will be taken before the Higher Education Academic and Curriculum Committee for appropriate punitive action.
