Part 1: Course Information

Course Descriptions
Introduction to source-based, academic writing, including practice in summarizing, analyzing, synthesizing and reading from a critical perspective. Sections organized thematically.

Prerequisites
ENGL 115 or ENGL 117. Cannot be audited or CLEPed.

Required Text/Material

Clear organization of all assignments and materials on your personal computer (I recommend a folder for each class and subfolders for handouts and each of your papers/projects)

Microsoft Word (please do not submit Google Docs, ODTs, or PDFs to LearningHub)

NOTE: We recommend getting textbooks through Amazon as they ship rapidly to most locations and offer more used and ebook options. If you choose to use the Andrews Bookstore, be sure you order the texts listed in the syllabus for your enrolled section (970-999). Then check delivery date before you order as it is essential to have the materials from day one.

- Guest students, contact your financial advisor at your home university.
- Degree students using federal financial aid should discuss textbook costs with their financial advisor before purchasing books, if they wish to include this in their budget.

Credit Hour and Commitment
This course is offered for 3 semester credits. In a face to face 15-week semester class, that typically requires 3 hours of classroom time per week, and 6 hours of homework per week for a total of about 135 hours. This class is delivered online in 6 months; so you should plan to spend about 3 hours/day on this class, including reading, accessing instructional materials, interacting with your instructor and classmates, and completing homework. Suggested schedule(s) to accomplish this work are included in this syllabus.

Institutional Outcomes:
1.a. Demonstrate competence in intellectual, affective, and practical skills to prepare for careers in the twenty-first century, lifelong learning and service.
1.b. Select and apply intellectual, affective, and practical skills from their field of study to solve meaningful problems. The identified transferable skills for undergraduate students are: information literacy, quantitative literacy, engaging diverse perspectives, ethical reasoning, analytical inquiry in the form of problem solving and creative thinking, communication, wellness and transferable life skills.
2.b. Pursue enduring questions through study in core fields and explore the connections between those fields.

Student Learning Outcomes
The central goal of ENGL 215 is to improve on your ability to think, speak, and write analytically in both public and private forums. The specific Student Learning Outcomes for the course are outlined below.

After successfully completing the course, students will be able to:
- SLO1. Reproduce the MLA style in their writing and documentation.
- SLO2. Identify major arguments and important social issues in texts and scholarly articles.
- SLO3. Interpret information to develop original arguments related to community problems and issues.
- SLO4. Criticize information and arguments in their writing.
- SLO5. Evaluate arguments for clarity, structure, and rhetorical proficiency.
- SLO6. Construct original arguments in academic writing through a variety of genres.
- SLO7. Engage in community organization and justice from personal, civic, and spiritual perspectives.
Part 2: Course Methods and Delivery

Methods of Instruction
Methods of instruction include assigned readings, participation in the online class discussion forums, writing, revision, feedback, and more writing. Regular participation in the course is essential to good performance.

Technical Requirements
- Computer: PC (Win 7 or newer) or MAC (10.6 or better)
- A webcam with microphone, and speakers (or plug in headset)
- Internet: 2.4 Mbps or faster DSL, cable or Wi-Fi connection
- Browser: Current version of Chrome or Firefox (Safari is not compatible with LearningHub)
- Software: MS Office 2013 or newer (Office 365 available here)

LearningHub Access
This course is delivered online through LearningHub at http://learninghub.andrews.edu

Your username and password are your Andrews username and password. You need to activate your username and password to access LearningHub.

Please do this online here: https://vault.andrews.edu/vault/pages/activation/information.jsp if you haven’t already. If you need assistance, call or email us: (296) 471-6016 or mailto:helpdesk@andrews.edu.

If you need technical assistance at any time during the course, or to report a problem with LearningHub, please email dlit@andrews.edu or call (269) 471-3960.

Part 3: Course Requirements

Important Note: This online class is not self-paced. You can arrange your schedule flexibly during each week, but you MUST participate each week. You are expected to “show up” to class by interacting in the discussion forums a minimum of two times per week. In addition, assignments are due regularly each week. Adequate Internet access during the duration of the course is critical for your participation. To be successful, plan to spend time daily on the course.

Assessment Descriptions

Essays: There are three major essays that will form the majority of your coursework: an article analysis on a selected article (NOT book review!) from Part 5 in the textbook, the Arts and Letters Daily, or another appropriate intellectual site approved by the instructor; a community problem essay, in which you select a problem and track its causes and effects; and a proposal in which you forward a solution to the problem addressed in Essay 2. To write a successful essay please read and follow carefully the methods discussed in the lessons and textbook. For more information, see the instructions for each essay. These are found in LearningHub.
Devotional Posts: You will be responsible for five devotional blog posts over the course of the class—divided evenly throughout the term. Draw from spiritual insights or the Bible for each post. Do focus on something uplifting, and avoid preaching, criticizing, and stone-throwing! This is something to inspire others and provide spiritual food!.

Assigned Readings: Readings are drawn from the textbook and other online materials. The course schedule below lists the reading assignments and their due dates.

Discussion Boards and Video Conferences: The discussion in this class is intended to build community and help us to feel connected to each other. Consider it a classroom conversation, not writing! In addition, the video conferences provide the forum to provide students with direct instructional feedback.

Peer Critique: Each of the essays will be followed by peer critique. Your role is to read the selection chosen by the peer, engage in evaluative and assessment process, understand the topic of the essay, recognize its objectives and ensure that all guidelines for the essay are met. Afterwards, you will provide constructive and professional comment on the topic, writing process, and content development. For more detailed guidelines for peer critique, please see LearningHub.

Rubrics
Assessment rubrics for each major essay or assignment can be found on the LearningHub modules. Please download each, so that you know how your essay will be graded and can understand the specific requirements for your individual assignments.

Exam
There are no exams in this course.

Part 5: Course Policies

Withdrawal and Incomplete Policies
The current withdrawal policy can be found online at https://www.andrews.edu/distance/students/gradplus/withdrawal.html. The incomplete policy is found online at http://www.andrews.edu/weblmsc/moodle/public/incompletes.html.

Maintain Professional Conduct Both in the Classroom and Online
The classroom is a professional environment where academic debate and learning take place. Your instructor will make every effort to make this environment safe for you to share your opinions, ideas, and beliefs. In return, you are expected to respect the opinions, ideas, and beliefs of other students—both in the face-to-face classroom and online communication. Students have the right and privilege to learn in the class, free from harassment and disruption.

Academic Accommodations
Students who require accommodations may request an academic adjustment as follows:

1. Read the Andrews University Disability Accommodation information at https://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/
2. Download and fill in the disability form at http://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/accommodationsreqform.pdf. Preferably type answers. To save a digital copy, 1) print to file and save or 2) print and scan. Email the completed form and disability documentation (if any) to success@andrews.edu or fax it to (269) 471-8407.
3. Email sdestudents@andrews.edu to inform the School of Distance Education that a disability has been reported to Student Success.

Commitment to Integrity
As a student in this course, and at the university, you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning, participation in this course, and integrity in your behavior in and out of this online classroom.

Commitment to Excellence
You deserve a standing ovation based on your decision to enroll in, and effectively complete this course. Along with your pledge of “commitment to Integrity” you are expected to adhere to a “commitment to excellence.” Andrews University has established high academic standards that will truly enhance your writing and communication skills across the disciplines and in diverse milieu with many discourse communities in the workplace.

Honesty
Using the work of another student or allowing work to be used by another student jeopardizes not only the teacher-student relationship but also the student’s academic standing. Lessons may be discussed with other students, tutors may help to guide a student’s work, and textbooks, encyclopedias and other resource materials may be used for additional assistance, but the actual response must be the student’s own work. A student who gives information to another student to be used in a dishonest way is equally guilty of dishonesty.

Any violation of this policy will be taken before the Higher Education Academic and Curriculum Committee for appropriate punitive action.
