Part 1: Course Information

Course Descriptions
This course is a survey of the development of major world civilizations from their emergence to the eighteenth century, and includes explorations in their origins and history of ideas, worldviews, political influences, religious institutions, social evolutions, economic realities, and physical environments.

Required Text/Material

Credit Hour and Commitment
This course is offered for 3 semester credits; therefore it is expected that you will spend 135 hours total on this course. This course has 16 modules with 15 lessons that include a quiz, assignment sheet and blog for each lesson, 2 exams, 1 paper. Each module represents a week of a typical semester course. It is recommended that you budget 9 hours for studying and completing the activities for each module. There are suggested schedules to accomplish this work included in this syllabus.
Student Learning Outcomes
After completing this course students should be able to:

1. Discover Divine Providence and Design within the human experience.
2. Identify critical key events, people, and historical forces impacting historical developments.
3. Determine the connections, similarities, and differences between historically significant characters.
4. Analyze key historical questions utilizing primary documents and secondary literature.
5. Utilize historical knowledge to inform current understanding of personal experiences and those around the world.

Part 2: Course Methods and Delivery

Methods of Instruction
This online course combines multiple learning exercises including short video lectures, textbook readings, primary source analysis, online activities, quizzes, two exams, and one essay. The video lectures will be consistent with the textbook but also provide additional information, so be prepared for exam questions covering both assignments and the textbook. The class will employ the use of film to help students visualize past peoples and events. Lastly, there will also be online discussion board interaction based on readings and online activities.

Technical Requirements
- Computer: PC (Win 10 or newer) or MAC (10.14 or better)
- A webcam with microphone, and speakers (or plug in headset)
- Internet: 2.4 Mbps or faster DSL, cable or Wi-Fi connection
- Browser: Current version of Chrome or Firefox
- Software: Office 2013 or newer (Office 365 available here)

LearningHub Access
This course is delivered online through LearningHub at http://learninghub.andrews.edu

Your username and password are your Andrews username and password. You need to activate your username and password to access LearningHub. Please do this online here: https://vault.andrews.edu/vault/pages/activation/information.jsp if you haven’t already. If you need assistance, call or email us: (296) 471-6016 or mailto:helpdesk@andrews.edu.

If you need technical assistance at any time during the course, or to report a problem with LearningHub, please email dlit@andrews.edu or call (269) 471-3960.
Part 3: Course Requirements

Important Note: This online class is not self-paced. You can arrange your schedule flexibly during each week, but you MUST participate each week. You are expected to “show up” to class by interacting in the discussion forums a minimum of two times per week. In addition, assignments are due regularly each week. Adequate Internet access during the duration of the course is critical for your participation. To be successful, plan to spend time daily on the course.

Assessment Descriptions

Assigned Readings: Readings are drawn from the textbook and other online sources. The course schedule below lists the reading assignments and their due dates.

Quizzes: Quizzes are a necessary evil when lengthy reading assignments are required, so each week a multiple choice and short answer quiz will be administered to demonstrate your mastery of the textbook material. There is a total of fifteen quizzes and they must be taken before the due date posted. Each quiz is worth 30 points.

Short Video Lecture Note Taking: For most learning modules you are required to watch and take notes on a short video PowerPoint lecture. Your notes are due on the designated date and must demonstrate a mastery of the information presented in the video in order to receive full credit. The point value of this assignment is noted on each module assignment sheet. You can expect exam questions to employ information from the video lectures, so plan accordingly.

Rubric for Grading Video Lecture Notes:
Characteristics of full credit are as follows:
1. Notes demonstrate information from the entire video lecture. In other words, they must show evidence of students having viewed the video lecture from beginning to end.
2. Notes need not be exhaustive, but they should be thorough.

Grading Scale
- 25-30 Points: Notes demonstrate appropriate information and are well organized.
- 20-25 Points: Notes demonstrate some of the appropriate information and are somewhat organized.
- 15-20 Points: Notes are missing important information and are disorganized.
- 10-15 Points: Notes are missing all-important information and are very disorganized.
- 0-10 Points: Notes were either not taken or nearly incomplete.

Primary Source Readings
Primary sources can be any kind of information or artifact created during a particular time. Interpreting them allows historians to study topics that may be thousands of years old. Textbooks are simply overviews or summaries of what happened, but primary sources contain pieces of knowledge that allow us direct access to the past. Primary sources must be interpreted, so you must ask questions of them before they can be of any use. In this course, you will be asked to read or examine a number of primary sources in each module and answer several corresponding questions. The point value of this assignment is noted on each module.
assignment sheet.

Online Activities
One of the best opportunities provided by an online course is ready access to the Internet. Online courses are not constrained by time and space the same way classroom courses are, so not utilizing this advantage would be a missed opportunity. Each week you are required to explore a number of websites dealing with worldwide historical topics. In order to assure you have completed these tasks you will need to answer the provided corresponding questions. The point value of this assignment is noted on each module assignment sheet.

Paper
There is ONE short paper required worth 250 points.

Your paper will address the following: Choose any people covered in the course textbook and explain why they influenced you more than any of the others.

A successful essay will include direct links between you and the people you choose. Possible writing topics include: food, dress, religion, culture, and politics to name but a few. You can choose one topic to write on or many. Try to convince your reader that the people you choose really did impact how you live your life.

Feel free to contact your professor and ask them to review your thesis. Students that do so, are significantly more likely to receive higher marks, because they have a better tendency to write on the identified topic.

Your paper should include the following:

1. Title Page
2.Introductory paragraph, 1/2 to 3/4 page
3. Body of evidence that supports your thesis, 3-4 pages
4. Conclusion, 1/2 to 3/4 page
5. Bibliography
6. The paper must have proper grammar, punctuation, syntax, etc...
7. Due to the online nature of the course all of your sources can come from the Internet.
8. All evidence used to support your claims must be properly documented. IN TEXT CITATION IS NECESSARY. Either footnotes or endnotes are required for proper documentation. MLA, Chicago, APA, and Harvard styles of citation are all acceptable. One possible style for how to correctly document historical sources can be found at: http://www.colorado.edu/history/undergraduates/paper-guidelines/referencing
9. Each paper is required to have a minimum of 6 different reputable sources. Wikipedia is not an acceptable source and therefore cannot be counted. A reputable source is one that is created either by a respected educational institution or expert in a particular field. If you have questions about a particular source please email the professor about your concerns.
10. The paper will have one-inch margins and be double spaced using size 12 font.

Your essay will be graded on not only how well you addressed your thesis, but also on how you fulfilled the guidelines above. Check the paper grading rubric for the grade breakdown.

Journal Blog Entries

A fundamental part of this course is the journaling component. This exercise will allow participants to consider significant questions raised by the teacher pertaining to their personal lives, spiritual welfare, and place in the world. Think of the journaling exercise as an opportunity to think critically about the world around you. A chance to record your thoughts and in the process have your perspective broadened. This assignment is worth 30 points.

For the journaling assignment students are required to answer four questions raised by the teacher.

Rubrics

Here is a breakdown of how the paper will be graded:

Exams

There are 2 exams in this course. The midterm exam covers material from Lessons 1-8, is made up of multiple-choice questions and worth 300 points. You will be allowed 150 minutes to take this exam. This exam is worth 10% of your grade. The final exam covers material from Lessons 9-15, is made up of multiple-choice questions and worth 300 points. You will be allowed 150 minutes to take this exam. This exam is worth 10% of your grade. Both exams must be taken under the supervision of a proctor.

Follow prompts in the course space to set up your exam session. In each module that contains an exam, you will find what to review and what materials are allowed (if any) during the exam.

Please read the important information about taking exams and how online proctoring works at www.andrews.edu/distance/students/exams.html. Follow the instructions that apply to your situation on the exam request form to set up your exam session.

Please note that an exam code is never released to the student. All students must present photo identification before each exam session. Exams can only be proctored after a deadline with approval directly from the instructor to the Testing Center (sdeexams@andrews.edu or 269-471-6566). No exam is returned to the student for review. To aid studying for future exams, you may request the instructor to provide summary feedback on an exam.

Part 5: Course Policies

Withdrawal and Incomplete Policies
The current withdrawal policy can be found online at https://www.andrews.edu/distance/students/gradplus/withdrawal.html. The incomplete policy is found online at http://www.andrews.edu/weblmsc/moodle/public/incompletes.html.

Maintain Professional Conduct Both in the Classroom and Online
The classroom is a professional environment where academic debate and learning take place. Your instructor will make every effort to make this environment safe for you to share your opinions, ideas, and beliefs. In return, you are expected to respect the opinions, ideas, and beliefs of other students—both in the face-to-face classroom and online communication. Students have the right and privilege to learn in the class, free from harassment and disruption.

Academic Accommodations

Students who require accommodations may request an academic adjustment as follows:

1. Read the Andrews University Disability Accommodation information at https://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/.
2. Download and fill in the disability form at http://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/accommodationsreqform.pdf. Preferably type answers. To save a digital copy, 1) print to file and save or 2) print and scan. Email the completed form and disability documentation (if any) to success@andrews.edu or fax it to (269) 471-8407.
3. Email sdestudents@andrews.edu to inform the School of Distance Education that a disability has been reported to Student Success.

Commitment to Integrity

As a student in this course, and at the university, you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning, participation in this course, and integrity in your behavior in and out of this online classroom.

Commitment to Excellence

You deserve a standing ovation based on your decision to enroll in, and effectively complete this course. Along with your pledge of “commitment to Integrity” you are expected to adhere to a “commitment to excellence.” Andrews University has established high academic standards that will truly enhance your writing and communication skills across the disciplines and in diverse milieu with many discourse communities in the workplace.

Honesty

Using the work of another student or allowing work to be used by another student jeopardizes not only the teacher-student relationship but also the student’s academic standing. Lessons may be discussed with other students, tutors may help to guide a student’s work, and textbooks, encyclopedias and other resource materials may be used for additional assistance, but the actual response must be the student’s own work. A student who gives information to another student to be used in a dishonest way is equally guilty of dishonesty.

Any violation of this policy will be taken before the Higher Education Academic and Curriculum Committee for appropriate punitive action.
