AU: HIST 404 Adventist Heritage
Spring 2017
Self-Paced Full Term Courses
This is a Self-Paced Full Term course which follows the Andrews semester schedule. Self-Paced Full Term courses have four important dates: 1) a start date, 2) a midterm completion date, 3) a final completion date, and 4) a course completion date. Please note that all module prior to the midterm must be completed BEFORE the midterm and all modules between the midterm and final must be completed BEFORE the final.

Instructor Contact
Please refer to course in LearningHub for the teacher contact information.

Communication with the Instructor
It is important to remember that while the Internet is available 24 hours a day, your instructor is not. You can expect that your instructor will respond to e-mail message to you within 2 business days during the week and may not be available to respond on weekends.

Part 1: Course Information

Course Description
Andrews University
A study of the background and development of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination from its beginnings in the Millerite Movement to its present global impact.

Course Prerequisites
Andrews University
None
Course Learning Outcomes
- Become familiar with the basic outline of Seventh-day Adventist history, including important individuals, events, and beliefs.
- Understand the major trends and developments in Seventh-day Adventist history, particularly doctrinal and organizational development, worldwide expansion, and relationships with both the “outside” religious and secular world.
- Identify the role that Ellen G. White played in shaping the institutional church and Adventist doctrine, including the relationship of Adventists to her writings since her death in 1915.

Required Text/Material

Credit Hour and Commitment
This course is offered for 3 semester credits; therefore it is expected that you will spend 135 hours total on this course. This course has 12 assignments and 2 exams; so it is recommended that you budget about 9.5 hours for studying and preparing for each assignment or exam. Suggested schedule(s) to accomplish this work are included in this syllabus.

Part 2: Course Methods and Delivery
Methods of Instruction
Methods of instruction include assigned readings from the textbook and the course material, short essays and reflections on the reading, short open book quizzes on the readings, interactions with the instructor via blogs, and two exams. Regular participation in the course is essential to good performance.

Course/Technical Requirements
- Internet connection (DSL, LAN, or cable connection desirable).

LearningHub Access
This course is delivered online through LearningHub at http://learninghub.andrews.edu

Your username and password are your Andrews username and password. You need to activate your username and password to access LearningHub.

Please do this online here: https://vault.andrews.edu/vault/pages/activation/information.jsp if you haven’t already. If you need assistance, call or email us: (296) 471-6016 or helpdesk@andrews.edu.

If you need technical assistance at any time during the course, or to report a problem with LearningHub, please email dlit@andrews.edu or call (269) 471-3960.
Part 3: Course Requirements

Important Note: Activity and assignment details will be explained in detail within each learning module. If you have any questions, please contact your instructor.

Assignments 1-12 (50% of the final grade)
Each of the assignments 1-8 consist of three parts:

1. Knowledge Check – true and false and multiple-choice questions. You can use your textbook during these assignments.
2. Short Answer Questions – fill-in the blank and essay questions. You can use your textbook during these assignments.
3. Short Essays – There are several short essay questions during each assignment. You can use the book while doing the questions. Many of the questions have a character of notes or a journal and can be filled in during your reading.

Your Schedule
In LearningHub, you will access online lessons, course materials, and resources. This course is self-paced. You must complete the course within 180 days. This is the Consortium policy. You may have a stricter deadline imposed by graduation, financial aid, or other restrictions.

Start by creating a schedule for completion of the course.
- Determine your deadline. Do you need a transcript sent to your home institution?
- Working from your deadline, count backwards. Allow 2 weeks after you take your final exam for your final grade to be calculated. Allow another 2 weeks for the transcript to be processed and sent.
- Now use the suggested schedules to create a schedule for yourself that ensures completion 4 weeks before your deadline.

Submit your course plan to your instructor within LearningHub AND discipline yourself to make regular progress.

Exams
Both Midterm and Final exam are worth 25% of your final grade. They are composed of short and long essay as well as identification questions. You will have two hours to take the exams. During my years of teaching, I have found it helpful to give students the exact essay questions that they will be asked to write on their exam. This approach offers you the opportunity to focus your study by determining the main points that you want to make and identifying the best evidence to support those points. You will need to prepare for each of the study questions, however, because you do not know which ones will appear on the exam. The questions can be found in the Midterm and Final Exam reviews. You are allowed 120 minutes to complete both the midterm exam and the final exam. You must bring your photo ID to the exams. The midterm and final exam will each be worth 25% of your grade.

Please review the current policy on approved proctors before completing the exam request form, which is linked through your course space. It is your responsibility to make arrangements for an approved proctor (unless living near the main campus) and to complete the exam request form at least two weeks prior to each exam date. Bring an official photo ID to show the proctor at the start of the exam session.

The midterm exam is worth 25% of your grade. You are allowed 120 minutes to complete this exam. The final exam is worth 25% of your grade. You are allowed 120 minutes to complete this exam.

If you cannot take your exam within the period noted in the email regarding exam arrangements, email sdeexams@andrews.edu with the reason you cannot meet this deadline, and a proposed alternate time within a week, and prior to the course end date.

Completed exams are never available to you or your proctor. Instructors provide feedback on exams other than the final exam. Exam grades can be viewed in the course space, and the final course grade is included in the University Academic Record accessible through your IVUE page.

Part 5: Course Policies

Withdrawal and Incomplete Policies
The current withdrawal policy can be found online at https://www.andrews.edu/distance/students/gradplus/withdrawal.html. The incomplete policy is found online at http://www.andrews.edu/weblmsc/moodle/public/incompletes.html.

Maintain Professional Conduct Both in the Classroom and Online
The classroom is a professional environment where academic debate and learning take place. Your instructor will make every effort to make this environment safe for you to share your opinions, ideas, and beliefs. In return, you are expected to respect the opinions, ideas, and beliefs of other students—both in the face-to-face classroom and online communication. Students have the right and privilege to learn in the class, free from harassment and disruption.

Academic Accommodations
Students who require accommodations may request an academic adjustment as follows:
1. Read the Andrews University Disability Accommodation information at https://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/
2. Download and fill in the disability form at http://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/accommodationsreqform.pdf. Preferably type answers. To save a digital copy, 1) print to file and save or 2) print and scan. Email the completed form and disability documentation (if any) to success@andrews.edu or fax it to (269) 471-8407.
3. Email sdestudents@andrews.edu to inform the School of Distance Education that a disability has been reported to Student Success.

Commitment to Integrity
As a student in this course, and at the university, you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning, participation in this course, and integrity in your behavior in and out of this online classroom.

Commit to Excellence
You deserve a standing ovation based on your decision to enroll in, and effectively complete this course. Along with your pledge of “commitment to Integrity” you are expected to adhere to a “commitment to excellence.” Andrews University has established high academic standards that will truly enhance your writing and communication skills across the disciplines and in diverse milieu with many discourse communities in the workplace.

Honesty

Using the work of another student or allowing work to be used by another student jeopardizes not only the teacher-student relationship but also the student’s academic standing. Lessons may be discussed with other students, tutors may help to guide a student’s work, and textbooks, encyclopedias and other resource materials may be used for additional assistance, but the actual response must be the student’s own work.

Exams must be completed in the presence of an approved supervisor without the assistance of books, notes, devices or outside help unless otherwise specified in the exam directions. The student should have no access to the exam either before or after it is taken. A student who gives information to another student to be used in a dishonest way is equally guilty of dishonesty.

Any violation of this policy will be taken before the Higher Education Academic and Curriculum Committee for appropriate punitive action.

Part 6: Bibliography

Although each of the chapters of Light Bearers identifies books and articles for further reading, the following short bibliography includes books that I believe are essential for anyone studying Adventist history. Relatively few major works have been published on Adventism outside North America; thus, this bibliography emphasizes the American church. Nonetheless, should you wish to read beyond the textbook, these works provide a good starting point for developing a deeper knowledge and understanding of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Based on the Adventist Heritage author’s doctoral dissertation, this book examines Seventh-day Adventist institutional responses and developing position regarding church-state issues.

Although not only about Seventh-day Adventists, this volume examines in detail the development of the denomination’s position regarding the evolution-creation debate and its influence on the scientific creationist movement.

This collection of essays examines from a variety of angles the Millerite movement and its relationship with American society.

This biography examines life and work of an influential educator, editor, and author in late nineteenth- and early twentieth-century Adventism.

Based on a doctoral dissertation, this book tells the story of the major figures and developing techniques in Adventist evangelism during the first half of the twentieth century.

This multi-volume biography provides little in the way of interpretation and analysis, but gives a detailed narrative of Ellen White’s life.
