Part 1: Course Information

Course Description
Lays the foundation for biblical sermon construction and delivery. This class is the prerequisite for all other homiletics courses and is a requirement for all religion/theology majors.

Required Text/Material

Note: Textbooks for online courses may be purchased from any supplier. For financial aid in payment, contact your financial advisor at the university where you are completing your degree. Andrews University degree students who have confirmed that funds are available will then purchase the books themselves and send receipts to their financial advisor for reimbursement.

1. The Bible: (A good Bible for study; not a paraphrase.)

Optional Text/Material

Credit Hour and Commitment
This course is offered for 2 semester credits; therefore it is expected that you will spend 90 hours total on this course. This course has 16 modules with 16 lessons. Each module represents a week of a typical semester course. It is recommended that you budget 6 hours for studying and completing the activities for each module. There are suggested schedules to accomplish this work included in this syllabus.

Institutional Outcomes:
3.a. Articulate a biblical worldview in order to interpret life, learning, and civic responsibility from a Seventh-day Adventist perspective.
3.b. Address the needs of diverse communities in a manner consistent with Christian thought and practice.

Program Learning Outcomes
- Possess a foundational knowledge in the areas of Bible, history, and theology, from a Seventh-day Adventist perspective. (Seek Knowledge)
- Express faith in the context of present society, history, theology, and be able to articulate the Seventh-day Adventist view of life both orally and in writing. (Affirm Faith)
- Exhibit growth in Christian life skills. (Affirm Faith)
- Document an attitude of mission, experience & skills in personal service. (Change the World)

Student Learning Outcomes
1. Demonstrate proper study methods for the preparation of expository sermons through contextual analysis and exegesis of a passage.
2. Practice expository preaching, evidenced through outlining, writing and delivering expository sermons.
3. Develop an effective filing system for supporting materials used in sermons.

Part 2: Course Methods and Delivery

Methods of Instruction
Methods of instruction include assigned readings from the textbook and the course material, short essays and reflections on the reading, interactions with the instructor via forums, and video assignment. Regular participation in the course is essential to good performance.

Technical Requirements
- Computer: PC (Win 10 or newer) or MAC (10.14 or better)
- A webcam with microphone, and speakers (or plug in headset)
- Internet: 2.4 Mbps or faster DSL, cable or Wi-Fi connection
- Browser: Current version of Chrome or Firefox
- Software: Office 2013 or newer (Office 365 available here)
LearningHub Access
This course is delivered online through LearningHub at http://learninghub.andrews.edu

Part 3: Course Requirements

Important Note: Activity and assignment details will be explained in detail within each learning module. If you have any questions, please contact your instructor.

Your Schedule
In Learning Hub, you will access online lessons, course materials, and resources. This course is self-paced. You must complete the course within 180 days. This is the Consortium policy. You may have a stricter deadline imposed by graduation, financial aid, or other restrictions.

Start by creating a schedule for completion of the course.
- Determine your deadline. Do you need a transcript sent to your home institution?
- Working from your deadline, count backwards. Allow 2 weeks after you take your final exam for your final grade to be calculated. Allow another 2 weeks for the transcript to be processed and sent.
- Now use the suggested schedules to create a schedule for yourself that ensures completion 4 weeks before your deadline.

Submit your course plan to your instructor within Learning Hub AND discipline yourself to make regular progress.

Assessment Descriptions

Quizzes
There will be a total of five online quizzes throughout the semester (refer to course itinerary below). Each quiz is worth 2.8% of your final grade and will cover the class material and assigned reading proceeding from the previous quiz. There are no make-up quizzes.

Eight Minute Sermon
Each student will preach an eight-minute sermon on an assigned text or passage. This should be a short but complete sermon, explaining the meaning of the text, expressing the sermonic ideas and providing clear application of the text. The sermon should include the core development of the “big idea” of the text and provide clear application and appeal for the congregation. You will receive a 1/3 letter grade deduction for every 30-seconds over the time limit. You will also receive a 1/3 letter grade penalty for going under 6 minutes for this sermon. Scripture reading and prayer count toward the time. You will need to submit the sermon video and manuscript through LearningHub. The manuscript should be 1-1.5 pages single spaced.

SERMON TEMPLATE

TITLE OF THE SERMON
Scripture Text:

Introduction: Complete lead sentence.

Propositional Statement: The central idea of the sermon.

I. First compliment – verses
   A. Sub-compliment (if needed) – verses
   B. Sub-compliment (if needed) – verses.
   TRANSITION: Using an illustration or a lead sentence.

II. Second compliment – verses
   A. Sub-compliment (if needed) – verses
   B. Sub-compliment (if needed) – verses
   TRANSITION: Using an illustration or a lead sentence.

III. Third compliment – verses
   A. Sub-compliment (if needed) – verses
   B. Sub-compliment (if needed) – verses
   TRANSITION: Begin to process the conclusion.

CONCLUSION: Bring us back to your proposition.

   A. Review of main compliments
   B. Application of truth to the listener’s heart
   C. Direction for the listener to respond to the living word of God.
      (Always know how to stand up, when to speak up, and when to shut up.)

SERMON EVALUATION FORM

Your sermon will be evaluated using the following grading scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>1 - Poor</th>
<th>2 - Fair</th>
<th>3 - Good</th>
<th>4 - Excellent</th>
<th>5 – Outstanding</th>
</tr>
</thead>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
STRUCTURE:

Introduction (attention-getting and in line with the main text)
Central Theme or Big Idea (clarity; well-developed)
Main points of the sermon were fully developed
Transition points (clear, flowed easily)
Conclusion (appropriate, relevant)
Clear Appeal (presented clear way to respond to message)

DELIVERY, STYLE AND APPEARANCE:

Appropriate Voice Inflection (voice clarity; projection; rate of speaking)
Dynamic delivery and ease of communication
Pronunciation, grammar (avoid filler words – ‘uh, um, okay, like, right...’)
Posture and Gestures
Use of Notes (preacher not stuck to manuscript)
Eye contact with the people (not staring at the ceiling, etc.)
Attire

EFFECT:

Sermon was Christ-centered or Gospel-focused
Sermon was relevant to the needs of the people
Aided in Christian growth (enabled change in behavior and thinking)
I would love if my non-Christian friend(s) could hear this sermon

TOTAL POINTS EARNED

Fifteen Minute Sermon
Each student will develop a 15-minute sermon on an assigned pericope of Scripture (several verses that form a literary unit and encompass a unified theme). Beware of the temptation of using a few words or a brief phrase to launch into a sermon, which is not contextual, exegetical nor expository. You will receive a 1/3 letter grade deduction for every 30-seconds over the time limit. You will also receive a 1/3 letter grade penalty for going under 12 minutes for this sermon. Scripture reading and prayer count toward the time. You will need to submit the sermon video and manuscript through LearningHub. The manuscript should be no longer than 3 pages single spaced.

Student Self-Evaluation (2)
For each of the sermons preached, students will write a two-page, double-spaced self-evaluation, which will answer the following questions:

1. Delivery: What pleased you most as you watched your sermon on video?
2. Delivery: What displeased you most as you watched the video tape?
3. Content: What part(s) of this sermon’s preparation gave you the most problem?
4. Content: Did the introduction convince the audience that they ought to listen? How could you strengthen it?
5. Content: How well did your proposition, main points, and sub-points fit together to develop the text?

6. Content: Were illustrations helpful to explain or persuade? Were applications direct and relevant?

7. Content: Did the conclusion do a good job of wrapping up the sermon’s main idea and motivate the listeners to respond appropriately?

8. What single change might have improved the sermon the most?

Each evaluation is due the week that the sermon video is submitted.

Sermon Notebook

Students will create a sermon notebook detailing supporting materials used in sermons. The notebook is to be divided into the following different sections: (a) 20 three-stage sermon outlines; (b) 30 sermon illustrations; (c) 30 Quotations from Ellen White on Preaching (10 on the Preacher’s Life, 10 on voice culture, and 10 on the importance of Preaching); (d) 25 preaching portions for future sermons; (e) class lecture notes and any other information a preacher might find useful. The assignment is broken up as smaller tasks throughout the course.

Written Projects

All written projects are to be handed in with 12-point font size, Times New Roman, double-spaced and saved as a pdf file before uploading to LearningHub. Points will be deducted from a paper that exceeds the assigned page limit.

Blogs

There are several blog questions throughout this course that you will answer. Responses should be at least 400 words. Make sure that questions are fully answered. Be sure to cite your sources.

Part 5: Course Policies

Withdrawal and Incomplete Policies
The current withdrawal policy can be found online at https://www.andrews.edu/distance/students/gradplus/withdrawal.html. The incomplete policy is found online at http://www.andrews.edu/weblmsc/moodle/public/incompletes.html.

Maintain Professional Conduct Both in the Classroom and Online
The classroom is a professional environment where academic debate and learning take place. Your instructor will make every effort to make this environment safe for you to share your opinions, ideas, and beliefs. In return, you are expected to respect the opinions, ideas, and beliefs of other students—both in the face-to-face classroom and online communication. Students have the right and privilege to learn in the class, free from harassment and disruption.

Academic Accommodations
Students who require accommodations may request an academic adjustment as follows:

1. Read the Andrews University Disability Accommodation information at https://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/
2. Download and fill in the disability form at http://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/accommodationsreqform.pdf. Preferably type answers. To save a digital copy, 1) print to file and save or 2) print and scan. Email the completed form and disability documentation (if any) to success@andrews.edu or fax it to (269) 471-8407.
3. Email sdestudents@andrews.edu to inform the School of Distance Education that a disability has been reported to Student Success.

Commitment to Integrity
As a student in this course, and at the university, you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning, participation in this course, and integrity in your behavior in and out of this online classroom.

Commitment to Excellence
You deserve a standing ovation based on your decision to enroll in, and effectively complete this course. Along with your pledge of “commitment to Integrity” you are expected to adhere to a “commitment to excellence.” Andrews University has established high academic standards that will truly enhance your writing and communication skills across the disciplines and in diverse milieu with many discourse communities in the workplace.

Honesty
Using the work of another student or allowing work to be used by another student jeopardizes not only the teacher-student relationship but also the student’s academic standing. Lessons may be discussed with other students, tutors may help to guide a student’s work, and textbooks, encyclopedias and other resource materials may be used for additional assistance, but the actual response must be the student’s own work. A student who gives information to another student to be used in a dishonest way is equally guilty of dishonesty. Any violation of this policy will be taken before the Higher Education Academic and Curriculum Committee for appropriate punitive action.
