Words of Welcome

Dan Agnetta opened the meeting and explained that the noon meeting time is being tested to see if it is more convenient for staff.

Words of Encouragement and Employee Development Feature

Pastor Ron Whitehead asked the group what they liked most about working for Andrews University. Some of the answers included – worship with co-workers, the atmosphere is not a rat race, the people, and working with people from all over the world.

He went on to explain what his department does to create a spiritual campus. Students have mentioned to him that the people that they work with (staff) on campus have had an impact on their spiritual life.

Pastor Ron showed an organizational chart of the Campus Ministries department and invited input from staff to the Spiritual Life Committee which meets the second week of the month.

Pastor Ron shared the new Campus Ministries calendar and highlighted new programs and changed schedules. In the upcoming school year, chapel will be held on Thursdays (vs. Tuesdays). There will also be an increased number of mini-weeks of prayer called Power Pac.
