Part 1: Course Information

Course Description

This course considers how the Judeo-Christian tradition confronts the moral complexities of a highly technical society. Are there universal absolutes that cross all cultural boundaries, or are all values relative? This course provides students with an overview of ethical theories and their relationship to various philosophies of life. It examines various ethical issues in contemporary modern society. Students will acquaint themselves with a range of ethical theories and learn how they impact the moral landscape. Discussions will move toward the development of an authentic Christian ethics based on Scripture. With this foundation in place, students will attend to a variety of ethical problems and issues that in many ways shape our culture and the religious debates.

The course further lays the background on ethical systems and moral reasoning by underscoring how these moral theories serve as the basis of decision making for those facing a conundrum of issues in their personal and professional lives that reflect the biblical principles outlined in Scripture. The course also provides students with opportunities to examine ethical values, critically assess them, and hopefully make informed decisions.

- Rae, S. B. Moral Choices: An Introduction to Ethics Video Lectures (MCVL). ISBN: 9780310599777

This average 30 min video lectures outline the distinctive elements of Christian ethics while avoiding undue dogmatism. They also introduce other ethical systems and their key historical proponents, including Plato, Aristotle, Augustine, Thomas Aquinas, and Immanuel Kant.

Moral Choices Video Lectures (MCVL) guide students in thinking critically and biblically about abortion, reproductive technologies, genetic technologies, human cloning, euthanasia, capital punishment, sexual ethics, war, economics, gun control, race, gender, diversity, immigration, refugees, and border control. The lectures help students wrestle with today's most difficult ethical issues.

Part 3: Course Requirements

Important Note: Activity and assignment details will be explained in detail within each learning module. If you have any questions, please contact your instructor.

Your Schedule

In LearningHub, you will access online lessons, course materials, and resources. This course is self-paced. You must complete the course within 180 days. This is the Consortium policy. You may have a stricter deadline imposed by graduation, financial aid, or other restrictions.

Start by creating a schedule for completion of the course.

- Determine your deadline. Do you need a transcript sent to your home institution?
- Working from your deadline, count backwards. Allow 2 weeks after you take your final exam for your final grade to be calculated. Allow another 2 weeks for the transcript to be processed and sent.
- Now use the suggested schedules to create a schedule for yourself that ensures completion 4 weeks before your deadline.

Submit your course plan to your instructor within LearningHub AND discipline yourself to make regular progress.

Assessment Descriptions

Short Answers

Two short answers assignments appear in the latter part of the course. Each short answers assignment has one to three questions that should be answered in 50-100 words each. The successful student is expected to answer all the questions in a concise, well thought through manner. The answers are focused on evaluating, debating, and reacting to the specific issues of the given lesson.

Position papers

The students are to write two five-page position papers on an ethical issue related to any of the week's lesson. The instructor will provide the pools from which the student will chose. The papers will be evaluated in terms of the logical cohesiveness of the arguments, the use of ethical principles to support the conclusions reached, and the use of the general outline suggested below.

Devotionals

You are required to participate in the "Devotional" forum by posting your reflection to the devotional found at the beginning of each lesson. Everyone is required to participate in the devotional by reading it and reacting to it with some personal thoughts or experience. You are required to respond to at least 2 postings made there by your classmates/course facilitator. Each of your responses in the devotional must be at least 30 words and is graded.

Reading Reports

In this online course, you are expected to take part in reading reports. You are required to read the assigned section of the textbooks.

- 1. First, summarize the section in 2 pages double space with the most relevant information to you.
- 2. State three main points from the summary you could apply to your personal or professional life and give the rationale for the selections.
- 3. Raise one burning question from the reading.
- 4. Assess this reading summary by stating at least one strength and or weakness.
- 5. And ensure that your report is free from grammatical errors.

Blogs

In each of the 16 lessons, one major blog question will be posted. Responses must be at least 100 words.

Exams

There is no midterm exam for this course but rather a final exam that is worth 190 points. You are allowed 150 minutes to complete this exam. The final exam must be taken under supervision of a proctor. In each module that contains an exam, you will find what to review and what materials are allowed (if any) during the exam.

Please read the important information about taking exams and how online proctoring works at www.andrews.edu/distance/students/exams.html. Sign up for a date to take the exam as early as possible. You may sign up as early as one month before the last date of the exam window. Spaces fill quickly. Therefore, it is best to sign up as early as possible. Follow instructions that apply to your situation in the exam request form to set up a proctoring appointment before the exam due date. There will be prompts throughout your course to sign up as well.

Please note that an exam code is never released to the student. All students must present photo identification before each exam session. Exams can only be proctored after a deadline with approval directly from the instructor to the Testing Center (sdeexams@andrews.edu or 269-471-6566). No exam is returned to the student for review. To aid studying for future exams, you may request the instructor to provide summary feedback on an exam.

Part 5: Course Policies

Withdrawal and Incomplete Policies

The current withdrawal policy can be found online at https://www.andrews.edu/distance/students/gradplus/withdrawal.html. The incomplete policy is found online at http://www.andrews.edu/weblmsc/moodle/public/incompletes.html.

Late Work

Due dates are listed both in the LearningHub course space and in the syllabus. Late work will have 10% of the earned points deducted.

Maintain Professional Conduct Both in the Classroom and Online

The classroom is a professional environment where academic debate and learning take place. Your instructor will make every effort to make this environment safe for you to share your opinions, ideas, and beliefs. In return, you are expected to respect the opinions, ideas, and beliefs of other students—both in the face-to-face classroom and online communication.

Students have the right and privilege to learn in the class, free from harassment and disruption.

Netiquette

In this course you will communicate with your classmates and instructor primarily in writing through the discussion forum and e-mail.

"Online manners" are generally known as "netiquette." As a general rule, you should adhere to the same classroom conduct that you would "off-line" in a face-to-face course. Some examples of proper netiquette are:

- 1. Avoid writing messages in all capital letters. THIS IS GENERALLY UNDERSTOOD AS SHOUTING.
- 2. Be careful what you put in writing. Even if you are writing an e-mail message to one person, assume that anyone could read it. Though you may send an e-mail to a single person, it is very easy to forward your message to hundreds or thousands of people.
- 3. Grammar and spelling matter. Online courses demand the same standard of academic communication and use of grammar as face-to-face courses.
- 4. Never use profanity in any area of an online course. The transcripts of online course discussion forums, e-mail, and chat sessions are savable.
- 5. When responding to messages, only use "Reply to All" when you really intend to reply to all.
- 6. Avoid unkindly public criticism of others. Publicly criticizing others in an inappropriate way is known as "flaming." Consider this course a practice forum for selecting your verbiage thoughtfully and professionally.
- 7. Use sarcasm cautiously. In the absence of nonverbal cues such as facial expressions and voice inflections, the context for your sarcasm may be lost, and your message may thus be misinterpreted.
- 8. In a face-to-face setting, our tone of voice and facial expressions may convey as much of our meaning as the words we use. In a written message, the subtext of your meaning may be confused or misinterpreted. Write clearly. Use active verbs. [Source: University of Maryland, Communications Department]

Academic Accommodations

Students who require accommodations may request an academic adjustment as follows:

- 1. Read the Andrews University Disability Accommodation information at andrews.edu/services/sscenter/about/accessibility-accommodations.html
- 2. Download the form at andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/accommodationsreqform.pdf. Email the completed form and disability documentation (if any) to disabilities@andrews.edu.
- 3. Work with the Disability Office to learn what support is available online and be ready to show your disability contract for the current semester to the exam proctor at the start of any exam session, if extra time is allowed.

Commitment to Integrity

As a student in this course, and at the university, you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning, participation in this course, and integrity in your behavior in and out of this online classroom.

Commitment to Excellence

You deserve a standing ovation based on your decision to enroll in, and effectively complete this course. Along with your pledge of "commitment to Integrity" you are expected to adhere to a "commitment to excellence." Andrews University has established high academic standards that will truly enhance your writing and communication skills across the disciplines and in diverse milieu with many discourse communities in the workplace.

Honesty

Using the work of another student or allowing work to be used by another student jeopardizes not only the teacher-student relationship but also the student's academic standing. Lessons may be discussed with other students, tutors may help to guide a student's work, and textbooks, encyclopedias and other resource materials may be used for additional assistance, but the actual response must be the student's own work. A student who gives information to another student to be used in a dishonest way is equally guilty of dishonesty.

Any violation of this policy will be taken before the Higher Education Academic and Curriculum Committee for appropriate punitive action.

AI Generated Work

Student work may be submitted to AI or plagiarism detection tools in order to ensure that student work product is human created. The submission of AI generated work constitutes plagiarism and is a violation of the Andrews University academic integrity standards for students.
