As the professional market continues to demand specialized knowledge and advanced degrees, graduate studies are a practical, sophisticated and wise career move. This interdisciplinary master’s program has unique advantages.

» Become competitive with an internationally recognized master’s degree
» Expand your global network through a multicultural and professional student body
» Meet highly qualified professors
» Work while you study
» Study in Russian or English each June/July
» Appropriate degree for humanitarian workers, administrators, public servants, educators, health providers or social/community needs professionals
» Affordable financial package
» Requires bachelor’s degree, or equivalent, as a prerequisite

CURRICULUM
- Requires 39 semester credits
- Focus on the framework and best practices for strategic project management in diverse and complex settings
- Explore social science foundations in understanding people-centered development
- Principles in organizational behavior, leadership and financial management as they relate to non-profit organizations
- Explore ethical principles affecting individual and organizational accountability
- Identify the process of policy making and communication
- Customize area of specialization to further career goals
- Mentoring research environment

Founded in 1874, Andrews is a non-profit institution of higher education, which embodies a mission of service and leadership. The degree earned through this program is awarded by Andrews University.

Learn more at andrews.edu/idp
Core Courses (26 Credits)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>2017</th>
<th>2018</th>
<th>2019</th>
<th>2020</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Communication in Development Practice COMM540 (2)</td>
<td>Ethics in Development IDAS610 (2)</td>
<td>Cultural &amp; Development Anthropology ANTH517 (2)</td>
<td>Program Design and Evaluation IDAS630 (3)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Leadership &amp; Management of Not-for-Profit Organizations BSAD530 (3)</td>
<td>Public Policy, Civil Society &amp; Development PLSC525 (2)</td>
<td>Development Theory &amp; Practice CIDS520 (3)</td>
<td>Conflict Management CHMN526 (3)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organizational Behavior &amp; Leadership BSAD515 (3)</td>
<td></td>
<td>Financial Analysis and Reporting ACCT625 (3)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Focus Area Courses (13 Credits)

- Portfolio IDAS597 (1)
- Applied Statistical Methods (online course) IDAS613 (2)
- Development Research Methods (online course) IDAS623 (2)
- Professional Training IDAS635 (2)
- Field Practicum IDAS680 (2)
- Specialization Essay IDAS696 (1)
- Research Project IDAS697 (3)

Focus Area Topics Include...

- Advocacy
- Civil Society
- Cross-Cultural Relations
- Development Policies of Government
- Education
- Environmental Studies
- Food Security
- Gender and Development
- Integrated Risk Management and Resilience
- Microenterprise
- NPO Policies and Operations
- Peace Building
- Public Health

CONTACTS:

Ukrainian Adventist Centre of Higher Education
Felix Poniatowski, director of graduate programs
+38093-100-20-89, poniatowski@ugi.edu.ua

Dawn Dulhunty, +1 269 4713668, idp@andrews.edu

Course offerings accurate at time of publication. All delivery details (courses, curriculum, site locations, languages, etc.) may be updated at any time by the Andrews University International Development Program. Updated January 31, 2017.