Hello Scholars!

It is again time for you to register for the course Program Continuation (IDAS655). This is so important so that you will have access to the James White Library and so that you will remain an active Andrews University student. There are no costs, credits, or requirements for this course.

Everyone receiving this message should register for this course (unless you are planning for May 2021 graduation).

Instructions for self-registration as an off-campus student are available at https://www.andrews.edu/grad/idp/resources.html. Below are additional details you will need to complete the process. Please be careful to register for the specific course shown below. Please enter the CRN as shown below and this will select the correct course for you. Please do not search for the course; rather, use the CRN provided.

Semester: Summer 2021
Course Name: Program Continuation
Acronym: IDAS 655-001
CRN: 525

The deadline to register for the Program Continuation course is 17 May 2021. Don’t wait, register today. If you have difficulties, please let us know so we can help solve them while there is still time.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Kind regards,

Rodrick