O. J. Graf Collection Collection 123

Biographical Information

Otto Julius Graf was born in 1879. He received his B.A. from Union College and his M.A. from the University of Nebraska. He served for one year as educational secretary of the Northern Union Conference, and one year as history teacher at Union College. From 1908 to 1917 he was president of Emmanuel Missionary College and exerted upon the college a molding influence. Because of ill-health he retired permanently in 1918. He died in 1950.

Scope

The collection consists of correspondence, manuscripts, papers, and notes related to Graf and his work.

Arrangement

The folders are numbered on the basis of topical and chronological sequence. See the following inventory.
