Dear Center for,

Below you'll find this month's store highlights.

Here in the United States, many people look forward to Memorial Day this month. For some it is just a holiday, while others take the time to fondly remember loved ones who died in military service, or to express gratitude for the sacrifices made by others.

As Christians we recognize the world is in the midst of a greater conflict. It's a conflict between good and evil, between God and Satan. I pray we will all take the time to remember the sacrifice of our Lord, as well as the sacrifices made by countless heroes of faith, from Bible times to our own time. May their lives inspire us to greater dedication and service.

We hope these specials will be a blessing to you and yours.

Warm regards,

Greg Morikone, Call Center Manager
