Principal’s Message

He Is Risen

The place is Mount Calvary; the season is spring;
The cross where my dear Savior died.
He was sorely mistreated and nailed to the cross.
For my sins His blood was applied.

He prayed, “Dear Father, forgive them,”
As He hung there in sorrow and shame.
His hands and His feet, and His bleeding brow,
Forgive me, for I know I'm to blame.

Come morning a trek through the darkness,
Sun rising, shadows fall on our way.
As I come to the tomb where they lay Him,
Make me worthy, and forgive me, I pray.

He is risen! He is risen! Christ is risen!
The tomb is empty, and the stone’s rolled away.
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, He is risen!
Have thy way in my heart, Lord, I pray.

Mr. Baker (Pictured below) introduces Mr. David Bego, author of “The Devil at My Doorstep”. Mr. Bego spoke with the student body on Tuesday about protecting employee rights. The assembly was exciting, informative, and thought provoking. A special thank you to Mr. Baker for arranging Mr. Bego to speak.

Look at the homerun Mr. Williams’ class hit while at PE this week....
