Letters to the Thessalonians

This Sabbath School helps book for the third quarter, 2012, is filled with the meat of practical Christianity and illustrated with stories of life in our world today, leading readers step-by-step, passage-by-passage through these epistles showing how we, too, can have a deeper relationship with God. Paperback, 128 pages. US$13.99.

Hyacinth Doesn't Go to Jail/ Hyacinth Doesn't Miss Christmas

A two-in-one book about Hyacinth Gail Pipsner, a charming and mischievous second grader whose antics will leave you laughing out loud. The first in a new series that will delight young girls (and perhaps even their big brothers), and leave them begging for more! Paperback, 160 pages. US$10.99.

Adventures in Galilee

This is the only book in Bradley Booth's Bible adventure stories for kids series that takes place in the New Testament. You'll follow Tabitha (Jairus's daughter) and Joel (the lad with 5 barley loaves and 2 fishes) as they wonder who Jesus really is, and ultimately decide that they will follow Him, no matter what the cost. Paperback, 160 pages. US$12.99.

Scrapbook Stories

Elder and Mrs. White had three children of their own. It was for these boys that Mrs. White first gathered her favorite stories and put them all in scrapbooks. Mr. Lloyd selected and edited the best of these scrapbook stories and put them into this little book. Paperback, 128 pages. US$9.99.

Song of the Trail

David recuperating from pneumonia, received his parents’ permission to accompany Old Doroteo to the high pastures for the season. With a little burro named Buhito and a tag-along pet crow named Timbird, David thought the life of a shepherd would be a great adventure. But he didn’t suspect that his seven months on the sheep trail would include getting lost in the desert for two days and losing a dear friend. Paperback, 160 pages. US$12.99.

Hyacinth Doesn't Grow Up/Hyacinth Doesn't Drown

Hyacinth is 6 and 7/9 years old, she’s a type A personality, and she’s afraid of the water. How much worse can it get? You’ll laugh out loud at the charming antics of this delightful second grader. Paperback, 160 pages. US$10.99.

Ruggy the Mountain Buck

When Danny stumbled across a starving fawn in the forest, he insisted that the family take it home to care for it. Ruggy, as the baby deer was named, quickly got stronger and began to tear around the barnyard with the dogs. As the years went by, Danny’s pet grew bigger and soon he was spending more and more time in the woods with his deer friends. Between hungry mountain lions, angry bears, and the fierce winter blizzards, Danny worried for Ruggy. Would he ever come home again?
