AdventistBookCenter.com update.

Our thoughts and prayers are with those recovering from hurricane Sandy. How often have we heard, "it is just stuff"? We mourn the loss of life and are grateful for those that survived. If only we could see the spiritual the way we see the physical. Reformation and revival may come easier. In his book, Almost Home, Ted N. C. Wilson shares spiritual essentials for those who will live through the end times.

Matthew:
Prophecy Fulfilled
By Elizabeth Talbot
A study of Matthew that reveals the good news of Jesus Christ and correlates it with Old Testament prophecies and promises. Demonstrates the unity between the Old Testament and the New Testament, placing Jesus at the climax of the history of salvation.

Mark, Good News!
By Elizabeth Talbot
The Gospel of Mark is a very encouraging book because it reminds us that, no matter what we are going through today, the final victory has already been attained by Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross. And THAT, my friend, is GOOD NEWS!

Luke: Salvation For All
By Elizabeth Talbot
Luke’s Gospel is filled with joy and excitement, because salvation has been secured for ALL!! Just like the shepherds on the hills of Bethlehem, you too can trade your fear for MEGA JOY!

John: God Became Flesh
By Elizabeth Talbot
From his first sentence, John wants us to recognize that Jesus is God—he wants us to see beyond Jesus’ humanity because then we will behold His glory and recognize the beauty of what He has accomplished for us all.
