January is National Soup Month. And what better time to become acquainted with Nancy Kyte's cookbook, A Taste of Travel—hearty soup recipes from around the world. And with the flu sweeping the country, soup may be just what the doctor ordered.

Looking for some ideas on healthy options to help avoid the flu? Check out Natural Lifestyle Cooking by Teenie Finley or Family Favorites With the Micheff Sisters.

A Taste Of Travel
By Nancy Lyon Kyte

One thing held in common by most cultures is the pleasure found in sitting down to enjoy a warm bowl of warm soup or stew. Nancy Lyon Kyte has collected recipes from more than 130 countries. In A Taste of Travel you will feast your eyes on the bounty of fruits, vegetables, nuts and grains that nourish us. Along with each recipe you will learn about the customs, traditions, and people who form part of the incredible network we call the human family. Enjoy!

Natural Lifestyle Cooking
By Ernestine Finley

Ernestine "Teenie" Finley has conducted hundreds of cooking schools over the years. This book is the accumulation of many of the recipes that have been taste-tested in these schools and in the Finley family kitchen. With a hard cover spiral binding and full-color pictures throughout, this cookbook is not only attractive, but very user-friendly.

Family Favorites Cookbook
With The Micheff Sisters
By The Micheff Sisters

The fifth – and best yet – in the Cooking with the Micheff Sisters series of cookbooks. It contains over 100 recipes time-tested in the family kitchens of Linda, Brenda, and Cinda. Some are sure to become your family’s favorites, too.
