Every day there are tragedies in the world that remind us of the pain of sin. At the same time there are miracles that show us the ultimate love. This month’s books feature adventures, miracles, sacrifice and courage. Now through the end of April you can save 25% off No Greater Love, stories of ultimate sacrifice. ~Steve Miracle on the Mountain
By Bradley Booth

Miracle on the Mountain is a collection of twelve extraordinary mission stories of faith and courage from around the globe. Stand alongside Li Hua and Segfred as they face certain death. Walk beside Genya and Won Tak as they preach the gospel against all odds, and journey with Philipp and Thomas to the ends of the earth to share the truth of the three angels' messages.

I Met A Miracle
By George E. Vandeman

Founder of the It is Written television ministry, George Vandeman, was a man personally acquainted with Christ. A man who met a miracle. Through his own story, and the stories of others, he demonstrates the struggle of surrender, the debilitating result of guilt, the persistence of conscience, the healing power of forgiveness...the miracle of conversion.

When God Calls, Expect Adventure
By Lester Hawkes, Brad Watson

Lester Hawkes always knew he would be a missionary. When the call came in 1945, he and Freda married quickly and set off for Papua and New Guinea.

From coral-fringed Papua to the incredible Highlands of New Guinea and remote Pitcairn Island, Lester and Freda worked tirelessly to cure disease, relieve superstition and share their love of God as medical missionaries.

Goodbye, Planet Earth
By Robert H. Pierson

Some scientists tell us...
Unsheathed teaches the importance of courage, honor, and standing up for what you believe. The author reveals the history behind the conflicts between Christians and pagans in long-ago Saxon England and helps children understand the high cost of the religious freedom we take for granted.

guiding them to record again in English. Their mission and passion are the same - a desire to bring both young and old to the feet of Jesus through their music.

with Newton scholars Brian H. Edwards, Jonathan Aitken and Tony Baker, thoroughly explores Newton's life from his turbulent youth to his involvement in the 18th century African slave trade, his dramatic conversion aboard a sinking ship and on through his remarkable ministry as an evangelistic preacher, hymn writer and abolitionist.

that we have come a long way in the evolutionary spiral and that man is soon to penetrate the magic barrier that now lies between us and a utopia of health and happiness. Others say that we have struck the nadir of human experience and that civilization itself is doomed. One country philosopher espoused the latter view; but he said, "When things git about as bad as they can git, it's a sure sign that somethin' better is comin' your way."
