Let's Talk about Where Are We Going

The young adult attrition rate within the Adventist Church is currently between 60 to 70 percent. Former General Conference President, Jan Paulsen, started a conversation with youth around the world, and shares what he learned from them in his new book, Let's Talk. In his previous book, Where Are We Going? Elder Paulsen explores the direction the church is heading.

Kay Kuzma shares some helpful tips for marriage and parenting in her two books, 180 Power Tips for Marriage, and 180 Power Tips for Parents. You will find these tips both timely and succinct.

Let’s Talk
By Jan Paulsen
Written by former General Conference President and host of the Let’s Talk broadcasts, Jan Paulsen, this book emphasizes the importance of communication if we want to be part of a vibrant, growing church. The author challenges each of us to take steps to bridge the cross-generational gap prevalent within the Seventh-day Adventist Church and states the urgency of utilizing all our resources—especially our young people—as we work together to hasten our Lord’s return.

Where Are We Going?
By Jan Paulsen
Do you know where we are going and why? Are we focused on the task at hand, or have distractions drawn us away from the priorities to which Christ has called us? This book isn't advice recycled from other books. Instead, Elder Paulsen shares here the perspectives on leadership he’s developed through a lifetime of service. He gives us a series of reflections on issues that are important to our church today and tomorrow.
