KIDNAPPED!

This word can bring heart stopping fear to anyone's mind, especially for parents with small children.

- In 2012, the FBI National Crime Information Center website reported 661,593 missing person entries.
As of December 31, 2012 87,217 were still active entries, and of those 54% were under the age of 20 within the United States.

As a world church family we have been gripped with the reality, and sometimes tragedy, that it does not only happen here in the United States, but also abroad in the mission field while serving. Sadly, even to families who are answering the call of God, "Whom shall I send, who will go for us?"

KIDNAPPED! Is a true story of one man answering that call. In his latest book, KIDNAPPED! Greg tells the gripping story of Paul Ratsara – a man of vision and faith who currently serves as president of the Southern Africa-Indian Ocean Division. KIDNAPPED! traces the story of a brilliant young man who, as a descendant of the royal line in Madagascar and firstborn son of the chief medicine man, was destined to become a leader among his people.

But that was before a little black book introduced him to the Savior. From royal village to Division president, life has been tumult of adventure and danger for Elder Ratsara amid the extraordinary providence's of God. Elder Mark Finley says, "This is no ordinary story. Paul Ratsara is no ordinary man. Your faith will soar as you read this exceptional story of God's divine deliverance. Every chapter radiates with confidence in a miracle-working God."

KIDNAPPED! is a page turner and you will want your own copy. Derek Morris says, "Once you start reading this remarkable story of deliverance and transformation, you will be inspired and challenged to live with courage and holy boldness."

You will seriously want to buy this book to know what happened after Elder Ratsara became one who said, "Here am I, send me."
